OVER TWO HUNDRED ENTOMBED IN MINE

An Explosion in New Mexico Shaft Buries Two Hundred and Thirty Employes

RESCUERS ARE POWERLESS

Death May Have Been Instantaneous from the Explosion—Are Being Rushed from All Directions —No Fire.

Dawson, N. M., Oct. 22.—Two hundred and thirty miners, according to an unofficial estimate, were entombed in shaft No. 2 of the Stag Canon Mines here when an explosion occurred in the property at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Two men found on an upper level were taken from the mine tonight. Rescuers were called from all parts of the Southern Colorado coal fields. The day shift working in shaft No. 2, numbered 230 persons.

The cause of the explosion is unknown. Fire has not broken out though smoke was seen issuing from the second level of the shaft. It was believed by rescuers that the smoke came from the explosion and not from fire.

Immediately after the explosion all shifts were called to the work of rescue and those miners who were employed in other shafts were put to work drilling through the debris, which was said to have blocked the mine below the second level.

Help Rushed to Scene.

The United States rescue car stationed at Trinidad was summoned and every available man in Dawson tonight was aiding in the attempt to reach the entombed miners.

Rescuers worked heroically to supply air to the men. Reports from the mine did not state at which level the explosion occurred but simply that the mine shaft was blocked from the second level.

The mine property is owned by the Phelps-Dodge Company, of New York.

Five mines are connected in the workings and it is thought that if any of the miners escaped death in the explosion they should be able to reach safety.

F. L. Miller, superintendent of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company rescue department, with a crew of trainrescuers, left Trinidad, Colo., on a special car ofr Dawson, with oxygen helmets and other apparatus.

Three Italians rescued alive from the debris at the entrance of the Stag Canon Mine at 9:30 tonight. This makes five miners who have been rescued. The rescue party is making slow progress against the tons of coal and debris which is blockading the mine. The five men rescued were separated from the main body of miners at the time of the explosion and could tell nothing of it.

Ran Special Train.

Trinidad, Oct. 22.—A special rescue train carrying scores of experienced miners equipped with rescue apparatus left here at 6 o'clock for Dawson, N. M., shortly after news of the explosion was received. Dawson is more than 125 miles from Trinidad over branch line railroads and it will be several hours before the special reaches the scene. Two automobiles loaded with five oxygen tanks and other apparatus left here for Dawson, approximately 90 miles distant, over mountain roads.

May be Rescued.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 22.—A long distance telephone message from Dawson, N. M., states that 280 miners were entombed in the Phelps-Dodge & Company mine here, but assurance was given that there was hope that all might be rescued.

The telephone message was to F. S. Searle, division agent for the Dawson Fuel Sales Company, and said:

"An explosion in mine No. 2 of Stag Canon Fuel Company mine at Dawson, N. M., caused a cave-in at the entrances of the mines, entombing 280 men including General Superintendent Frank C. McDermott. A large majority of the men entombed are Italians. There is every reason to believe that practically all can be rescued, as several means of escape are offered from mine No. 2, which is connected with No. 5 by a tunnel driven through the mountain and also connects with an air shaft driven down from the top of the mountain. This air shaft is equipped with steps and ladders upon which the entombed men, if they are abel to reach the air shaft can make their way to the top top.

A Model Mine.

New York, Oct. 22.—While no direct word was received here tonight by Phelps-Dodge Company regarding the explosion in their coal mine at Dawson, N. M., it was stated by officers that the mine is so nearly perfect in its construction that it was inconceivable that there would be any great loss of life.

"The mine is one of the model ones of the country," declared Cleveland H. Dodge, vice president of the company. It was as safe as engineering could make it. None of the tunnels is more than fifty feet deep—that was the depth of the one where the explosion occurred, I believe. They are all so full of exits and ventilating shafts equipped with electric fans that we have regarded it as practically impossible for the dead coal gas to accumulate. Unless men were killed in the explosion itself, it is inconceivable that there has been a heavy death toll.

"The mine has been operated 15 years without an explosion."

By 10 o'clock tonight the rescuers had penetrated more than 100 feet into the mouth of the mine and reached five of the entombed miners, who were alive, they had suffered much

INDIAN FRIENDS STIRRED UP

Because Department of Interior Refused to Publish Severe Criticism of Congress Regarding the Treatment of Indians.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Members of the Federal Indian Service, missionaries, tribal attorneys and others who spent the day here discussing conditions among the five civilized tribes of Oklahoma Indians were stirred tonight by news that the Interior Department had refused to publish a severe criticism of conditions in Oklahoma recently reported by Warren K. Moorehead, of the Board of Indian commissioners.

Mr. Moorehead is here attending the Lake Mohonk Conference of Friends of the Indians and Other Dependent People, received this information from Washington today and with it a telegram of censure from the acting Secretary of the Interior.

Commissioner Moorehead investigated conditions in Oklahoma by direction of the Board of Indian Commissioners, and fearing, he said tonight, that the department might refuse to publish his report he had 2,000 copies printed and circulated at private expense.

Four other members of the board are here and Commissioner Moorehead at their advice read portions of this report at tonight's meeting of the conference, but refrained from comment. Acting Secretary of the Interior Jones, he said, refused to print the report on the ground that it was a criticism of Congress, and would cause resentment in Congress. He did not deny the facts presented.

"The weakest thing in the entire Indian situation," said Mr. Moorehead, "is that the citizenship we have handed the Indian carries no weight and unless he belongs to the favored class he can no more keep his property than can a lamb escape from the jaws of the wolf."

His chief recommendation was that the President name a National Indian commission of nine men with absolute authority to hold office for ten years at adequate salaries. The present board of commissioners is unsalaried and has only advisory powers.

Other speakers on the topic of the Oklahoma Indians were Gabe Parker of Oklahoma, a Choctaw, who is register of the United States Treasury, and Rev. J. Harvey Randall, president of the Bacone, Okla., Indian college.

The Navajo and other Indians on the public domain were the subject of addresses by W. R. Johnson, of Indian Wells, Ariz., a representative of Presbyterian missions; Herbert Welch corresponding secretary of the Indian Rights Association; F. H. Abbott, of Washington, secretary of the board of Indian Commissioners, and J. Weston Allen, vice chairman of the Boston Indian Citizenship Committee.

The capabilities of the Indian furnished the subject of a lively debate among the delegates at today's session. Widely divergent views were expressed. Some of the speakers believed the Indian still a child, and that the Federal government had grossly neglected him. Others, apparently a minority, declared that some tribes had reached a state of mental development where they should be released altogether from government supervision.

State Department Officials are Mum Regarding Latest Mexican Development.

DIAZ REACHES VERA CRUZ

Will Not Give Up His Candidacy for President Even Though Opposed by Huerta—French Ships to Mexican Waters.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 22.—Gen. Felix Diaz in defiance of the intimation from the government that he proceed to Tampico aboard the steamer Corcovado and there disembark, has decided to remain at Vera Cruz, at least temporarily. He is unwilling to admit he is not free to come and go and talks of a trip to the capital tomorrow or Friday.

According to reports current here tonight he is likely to return to Havana aboard a Mexican warship and unless the orders from the capital are altered he will be left no choice.

Gen. Diaz was to have been notified on the high seas of the government's wishes, but the captain of the gunboat Zaragoza, who put to sea in the middle of the night, with Col. Vidaurrazaga, secretary to the minister of war, to whom the mission had been entrusted, lost his course.

When the Corcovado arived a government representative attempted to induce Gen. Diaz to continue his voyage to Tampico. From the moment of his landing he has professed his intention of continuing the political fight, although close followers have suggested this would be futile in view of the Huerta-Blanquet ticket.

In a speech from the balcony of a hotel to a few hundred workingmen gathered to greet him despite police orders against demonstrations, Gen. Diaz reiterated his purpose of continuing the campaign.

There was no disorder here but 12 arrests were made in connection with Diaz's coming. Four of the prisoners are army officers who were members of the commissioned named with Gen. Diaz as a special embassy to Japan.

They were instructed to remain at Havana, but allege that a shortage of funds forced them to disobey the order. For this they were arrested. Three of the prisoners are Italians who are accused of plotting the assassination of Diaz. The others are partisans of diaz, who are charged with attempting to influence the police

Action Postponed For Three Years

New York, Oct. 22.—The general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, postponed today for three years action on the question of giving the negroes of the South a bishop to represent them directly in the House of Bishops.

The decision to defer the voting on the matter was reached after several hours of debate participated in by delegates from many States of both North and South. The Southern delegates were divided as to the wisdom of creating a separate territorial missionary district for negroes.

Those who opposed the plan held it would mean ultimately the establishment of a negro Episcopal Church entirely apart from the present church, they declared the Southern negroes were not sufficiently developed to assume church responsibilities. Supporters of the plan declared a merger of white and negro congregations in the South impossible and that it were better to give the negroes a church of their own than for them to have none at all. The lamentable conditions among many Southern negroes were pointed out. It was asserted the church had failed to alleviate these conditions and that it should experiment with a negro bishop.

A resolution was introduced by Rev. W. R. Godwin, of the diocese of Western New York, authorizing the Episcopal Church to co-operate with Christian boards of other denominations in the matter of general unity in church missions at home and abroad. The suggestion was made the order of business for tomorrow forenoon.

It was announced on behalf of the House of Bishops that Rev. Hugh Burleson, secretary of the board of missions, had declined appointment as bishop of the missionary district of North Dakota, explaining he preferred to continue his present duties. Rev. Dr. John Poyntz Tyler, archdeacon of Cumberland, diocese of Maryland, was appointed to fill the North Dakota vacancy. Dr. Tyler is rector of St. John's Episcopal church, Hagerstown, Md.

The pension plan proposed by the House of Deputies for aged clergy was approved by the House of Bishops. The pensions are fixed at $600 minimum and $2,000 maximum graduated according to clergymen salaries during active pastoral labors.

The cryptic handwriting of the Southern bishop caused an error in the announcement of the election of the bishop of Spokane last Monday. The announcement made then was that office had been filled by the selection of Rev. Dr. W. B. Capers, of Columbia, Tenn. Examination today of the original drafted resolution showed that the new bishop of Spokane is Rev. W. T. Capers, rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles of Philadelphia, a brother of W. B. Capers.

GRAND JURY MAKES AN INVESTIGATION

JEROME WILL TAKE CHARGE

Alluded to Thaw as Man Who "Had Been Adjudged so Insane as to be Criminally Irresponsible."

New York, Oct. 22.—Counsel for Harry K. Thaw today began a fight to prevent indictment in New York county by the grand jury, that will begin tomorrow to consider the circumstances surrounding Thaw's escape from Matteawan.

Willard Olmstead, of Thaw's counsel, took to the district attorney's office a copy of Justice Seabury's charge to the grand jury what that body heard Thaw as a witness against John N. Anhut. Justice Seabury then alluded to Thaw as a man who "had been adjudged so insane as to be criminally irresponsible" and instructed the jury not to ask him to sign any waiver of immunity nor insist upon his answering any question, the answer to which might in any way tend to implicate him in any unlawful transaction.

Mr. Olmstead requested that Justice Seabury's charge be called to the attention of the present grand jury. William Travers Jerome has been designated by the attorney general to take charge of the case.

Congregational Church Elects

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 22.—Having elected as moderator Rev. Charles R. Brown, dean of the Divinity School of Yale University, delegates to the National Council of Congregational Churches tonight listened to the address of Rev. Nehemiah Boynton, of Brooklyn, N. Y., the retiring moderator, who declared Christianity today is flourishing and the Church is holding its own.

"Mankind is still incurably religious," said Mr. Boynton, "and the instinct of religion, never more than today, asks its brave questions, claims its uneclipsed hopes and initiate the inspiring adventures."

The important question before the Council today was the election of a moderator, the delegates having merely received the reports on committees and commissions appointed three years ago and referred them for later consideration.

A strong movement for the election of layman as moderator was subdued when W. W. Mills, of Marietta, Ohio, and Henry M. Beardsley, of Kansas City, both withdrew their names after nomination. The election of Dr. Brown followed on the first ballot. Mr. Beardsley was unanimously named assistant moderator and Rev. A. C. Garner, a negro pastor of a church in Washington, D. C., was chosen second assistant moderator.

Every allusion by speakers to a movement to unite the churches of the country and the world, met with applause.

Just before adjournment a telegram from the general convention of Protestant Episcopal Church in session in New York was received. It read:

"We send fraternal greetings and pray that the day may be hastened when all Christians shall be joined together in that peace and unity for which our Lord prayeth."

Dr. Brown, who in the election of moderator, received 190 of the 354 votes cast, was for 14 years pastor of the First Congregational church of Oakland, Cal. He was active in relief work at the San Francisco earthquake. He is 51 years old.

Opposed to Dr. Brown besides Mr. Beardsley were Charles S. Hills, of Montclair, N. J.; Rev. William S. Horace, of Los Angeles, and Rev. Samuel H. Woodrow, of St. Louis.

Getting Ready For His Trial.

Hans Schmidt, the renegade priest, who confessed slaying Anna Aumuller and dismembering her body, was sane when the murder was committed, according to the report of four alienists who examined him. The report was made public yesterday by District Attorney Whitman, who is preparing to bring the priest to trial.

TWENTY THREE INDICTED

Former Officers of East St. Louis, Ill., Charged With Grafting Into the Hundred Thousands—Other Arrests May Follow.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 22.—The indictment today of 23 former officials of East St. Louis, Ill., on charges growing out of an investigation of alleged municipal irregularities, was characterized by States' Attorney Webb as the forerunner of other indictments to be returned by the grand jury.

Those under indictment tonight is a former mayor, a former city treasurer, two former comptrollers, two former heads of city departments, 12 former aldermen and the present chief of detectives. All these were a part of the administration of Charles S. Lambert, who retired from the mayoralty last Spring, being succeeded by Mayor Chamberlin, who was elected on a reform platform.

Among allegations supported by evidence introduced before the grand jury were the following:

"That East St. Louis was more than $200,000 in debt.

"That during the Lambert administration warrants were issued for large sums for the payment of city officials who had contracts with the city in violation of the law."

Many of the indictments returned against the various ex-officials cover the same offenses, but are differently phrased to meet legal points.

Following are thos indicted:

Charles S. Lambert, former mayor, charged with conspiracy to defraud the city of $125,000.

E. Fred Gerard, former city treasurer, charged with conspiracy to defraud the city of $125,000, and with embezzlement of $50,000.

William R. Rodenberger, former city comptroller, charged with conspiracy to defraud the city of $125,000, and with embezzlement of $10,000.

John J. Faulkner former city comptroller, harged with onspiracy to defraud the city of $125,000.

Lester J. Grigsby, present chief of detectives, charged with burglary, larceny and conspiracy to defraud the city of $100,000.

Dr. Lemuel B. Short, former health commissioner, $100,000 conspiracy.

Daniel G. Wuersch, former superintendent of streets, $100,000 conspiracy.

John Edminston, assistant superintendent streets; John D. Young, former deputy building commissioner; Claude E. Tietje, present alderman and former chairman of the council claims committee; John W. Gavin, former alderman, and the following present aldermen: Anton Hahn, Fred W. Leckel, John C. Malinee, Leon Priwer, Edward J. Spiesbach, Louis G. Runtz, John D. Roche, Andrw Rouge, William H. Degen, James M. Sheer, Lee Brown, Rudolph Huschlee, all charged with conspiracy.

WAR IN PHILIPPINES.

Tribesmen and Scouts Fighting—Five of Latter Dead.

Manila, Oct. 22.—Serious fighting has occurred and still continues at Talipao, in Mindanao, between tribesmen and Philippine scouts. So far as reported, five scouts have been killed and eight wounded. Capt. Harry McElderry, of the 13th company of scouts is among the wounded.

The fighting began yesterday morning, the companies engaged being the 13th, 16th, 21st, 24th and 31st.

PLAN TO SECURE EXPERTS

Senate Banking and Currency Committee Will Secure Aid of Banking Experts in Work on Currency Bill.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Plans for securing the aid of experts to frame proposed amendments to the administration currency bill were made today by the Senate Banking and Currency committee.

Hearings on the bill will be closed Saturday and then consideration of amendments will begin. The committee wishes to hear, particularly financiers familiar with the movement of gold between the United States and Europe.

The members of the committee agreed that the framing of amendments must be done with the greatest deliberation and each one will be submitted to an expert qualified to judge of its defects. Chas. A. Conant, of New York, is one of those whose opinion will be asked.

H. Parke Willis, who advised the House committee in the preparation of the bill, was requested to appear on Friday.

Today the committee heard four witnesses discuss the bill. Alexander Gilbert, of New York, president of the Fulton Market National Bank, who took the stand yesterday, concluded his testimony and warned the committee against haste.

Taylor Vinson, of Huntington, W. Va., proposed an entirely new banking and currency scheme. He suggested the formation of a "treasury bank" through whih the government itself should issue currency and extend rediscounts to National banks. He recommended that the collectors of internal revenue be made branch officers of this bank to pass on credits. F. J. Syme, of New York, briefly endorsed the general principles of the bill.

R. H. Long, of Massachusetts, told the committee of being refused credits by various New England banks when he endeavored to ombat the United States Machinery Company. Senator Weeks, who said he was a director of one of the banks in question, declared that Mr. Long was refused a loan simply because of his credit condition.

The effect of the new law on National banks in Hawaii was called to the committee's attention by L. T. Peck, cashier of the First National Bank of Hawaii. He said the bill not only did not admit the insular banks into the new system, but that it repealed privileges they now enjoy. He asked that the Hawaiian banks be allowed to retain their charters under present conditions.

Senator Pomerene, of the committee, and a supporter of the administration bill, today discussed the situation at length with President Wilson.

"The views of members of the committee," he said, "are harmonizing. With a unanimous report the bill will not be debated long on the floor of the Senate."

Representative Glass, chairman of the Banking committee, today through Chairman Grosscup, of the Democratic committee of New Jersey, invited former Governor Stokes, the Republican candidate for Governor, to be present Monday night at Trenton, when he speaks on the pending currency bill. Mr. Stokes, in his campaign speeches, had made reference to the currency bill which Mr. Glass intends to make reply to.

New York, Oct. 22.—Lindlay M. Garrison, Secretary of War, left New York for Panama today on the steamship Colon. He will make a general investigation of conditions in the Canal Zone, particularly with reference to plan the permanent organization of the administration there after the canal is completed.

PROSECUTION IN EATON CASE ENDS

TWO WILLS READ IN COURT

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 22.—The evidence with which the prosecution expects to convict Mrs. Jennie May Eaton of the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, was practically concluded today when the government rested its case. Court adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock when the defense will introduce the first of its witnesses.

Most of the evidence today dealt with statements said to have been made by the defendant regarding the Admiral's alleged nabit of dabbling with poisons and his alleged susceptibility where women were concerned.

The last witness, Ralph P. Keyes, husband of Mrs. Eaton's older daughter June, testified that he once heard Mrs. Eaton tell Mrs. Keyes that the Admiral had put away more than 100 men on his ship at one time by means of poison.

Keyes on Stand.

Keyes said that the particular conversation referred to took place on the night of Wednesday, March 5th, three days before the Admiral's death. June said, according to her husband's testimony, that while she was in Assinippi that day the Admiral asked her whether she cared if her mother and her husband were put out of the way.

"I'll have to go down and look after him," was Mrs. Eaton's comment in reply to June's story, as Keyes heard it.

Keyes testified that Mrs. Eaton went to Assinippi the next morning. The Admiral died on the following Saturday morning. The prosecution contends that the first dose of poison was given to the Admiral on Thursday.

Keyes further said Mrs. Eaton declared that the Admiral punctured her arm with hypodermic needles while she slept and that one of her front teeth was loose because the Admiral had injected something into her jaw.

On cross examination Keyes said he had heard Mrs. Eaton make such remarks as these frequently and not merely on the one occasion mentioned.

The district attorney's attempt to ask questions about the parentage of a child adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Keyes was frustrated by Chief Justice Aiken, who declined to allow the witness to answer.

At the conclusion of the testimony the prosecution put in several exhibits, among them the will of Admiral Eaton. This gives the bulk of his property to Mrs. Eaton. In the event of her death everything is to go to her younger daughter, Dorothy, with the exception of a bequest of $5,000 to June Keyes.

Found Typewritten Paper.

A typewritten paper found in the Eaton home a few days after the Admiral's death, was described as the will of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, the widow, by State Officer John H. Scott in his testimony today.

Under terms of the document all property was deeded to Mrs. Eaton's eldest daughter, Mrs. June Keyes. The paper was uncompleted and unsigned. Reference to this document was made last week during the testimony of Mrs. Eaton's young daughter, Dorothy Ainsworth.

The prosecution contended that since Dorthy had testified that she and her mother were the only members of the family who could operate a typewriter and that she had not written it, it was fair to infer who was the author.

The police investigation of Admiral Eaton's death was the subject of most of Scott's testimony. On his first visit to the Eaton home on March 10th, Mrs. Eaton told him that she could not see the necessity of an investigation, as the doctor had pronounced death due to natural causes.

Scott said he was unable in a search of the drug stores in the vicinity or in Boston, Washington and Alexandria, Va., to find any one ethat had ever sold poison to Mrs. Eaton.

A letter written four years ago by Mrs. Eaton to Dr. Charles H. Colgate, Jr., a Rockland physician, was read into the record during the testimony of Dr. Colgate. In the letter Mrs. Eaton complained that the physician had been rude to her. The letter in part follows:

"I came to you for advice, for it is the brain of a world-renowned man who is going. I gave up an elegant home in Brookline, three house maids and society to bring this poor deluded man out into the country to regain his health which I thought was caused by drinking to excess and too much money and social obligations, etc. After hard, long, earnest conscientious work, I proved to myself the trouble is of deeper origin than whiskey and wear and tear of city life."

BATTLESHIP TEXAS.

En Route to Trial Ground Faces Fifty-mile Gale.

Rockland, Maine, Oct. 22.—The battleship Texas, largest of the American sea fighters, arrived here tday for a builders' acceptance trial which will be begun on the measured mile course off Rockland tomorrow.

The Texas left Old Point Comfort at 8 A. M. Monday. On the run from Cape Henry to Nantucket she faced a 50-mile gale and maintained an average hourly speed of 19 knots with a maximum of 20 knots.

..Theatrical..

Tickets go on sale promptly at 8:30 o'clock this morning at J. Hicks Bunting's drug store for both performances of Primrose and Dockstader's Minstrels, who, under a big guarantee, appear at the Academy of Music twice Saturday.

It will be the greatest minstrel event, or rather, events of this or any other season. Who has not heard of Lew Dockstader and George Primrose? Their minstrel production this year is mammoth and brilliant. A special scale of prices has been arranged for the matinee, being 25, 50 and 75 cents, to any part of the Academy. Children under 12 years of age will be admitted for 25 cents. The scale at night goes to $1.50, the same as Primrose and Dockstader command on Broadway.

The Virginia press highly praises the attraction and the Richmond Times-Dispatch devoted over half a column in singing its praises, among other things saying:

"Now, here they come! Salute Geo. H. Primrose, 65 years young, or thereabout, dancing in his soft shoes like a boy of 20, bore graeful thacn one man in 10,000, lithe, agile and active, just a youngster—and join with the rest of the house in an outburst of warm-hearted welcome to this veteran boy. Watch him dance, and understand again why he is one of the greatest of them all.

"'Well Lew', says the interlocutor, Harry F. Sievers, himself very much of an actor, by the way, and then this Lew begins to be funnier than he has been in 10 years. In his own original whine, he pours out irresistible idiocy, half-studied, half improvised, until the house is convulsed. Dockstader is again at the head of his own show—a minstrel unexcelled.

"A pause in the roar of laughter. Down stake walks a tall young chap, who has been singing heartily, not saving his voice. His name is Raymond Wylie, and the programme assigns to him the Miseser from 'Il Trovatore.' It can't be done? Well, wait a minute. He begins in a ringing baritone—the song has been put down. Then he sings Leonora's part, and not in falsetto, but in pure, bright, soaring soprano, running up and up without limit. The house thunders; he follows with a bit of Tostil's 'Good-Bye, Summer,' changing the end so as to give him more top notes. Again the house begs for more; he sings again. Nobody wants him to stop, but there is lots yet to come. That double quartette sings the Sextet from 'Lucia' in ragtime, an arrangement to delight the heart of musician and tangoist, while Lambert proves that he has a real voice and Wylie soars to the gridiron.

"Dockstader comes on in his famous suit, and has the house in a minute, closing a monologue that the audience 'eats' with a line of local hits that really hit. Hear that 'stone unturned' tale, that bit about Mayo's Bridge, and the line concerning the two distinguished members of the Council.

"Primrose, Johnny Foley and Johnny Murphy sing Otis M. Alfriend's successful song, 'Dat Coal Black Cullud Chile,' straight at Mr. Alfriend, but the audience wants it, too, and they have to sing the chorus over and over again.

"When Sidney, Webster, Merville and Starr sing—sing, mind you—'The Country Band', with Sidney singing the tuba, if you do not laugh until it hurts you it will be because you are stone deaf. You will agree with me that Sidney's work, in particular, is the cleverest bit of comedy vocalization that you have ever heard. Then see and hear Tom Brown and his saxophone sextet in about the best vaudeville musical act that has played Richmond in your day. And do not think, because much of it is screaming comedy, that a greater part of it is not musicianship of a high order. Notice the first cornet, besides Tom Brown himself.

"Stay for the rapid, afterpiece, and go out still laughing, glad that you have once more seen a real minstrel show."

Big Day at Bijou.

Another great day will be this for the amusement lovers of Wilmington, because the popular Bijou will be to the front with one of the best bills ever. It will head its great film collection with a special two-reel release, "The Fatal Legacy", which is one of the most stirring of dramatics and a photoplay that cost quite a tidy sum to obtain, getting it at the same ime as the big city theatres do. However, this is just the Bijou habit, which has profited theatre goers much. "The Fatal Legacy" is the tale of inheritance and drink, going down from generation to generation. There is a great moral wrapped up in the thrilling dramatic story that is so vividly set forth. A fine cast will be seen, including the favorite actors and actresses of moving picturedom.

There is yet another dramatic masterpiece on today in Lubin's latest, "In the Toils." It tells of how a man is inveigled into a get-rich-quick concern and the disaster he brings to others. However, he atones in fine manner. There are many thrilling spectacles, including a drowning scene and an explosion aboard a steamer.

World's Series at Grand.

The biggest moving picture bill, the most expensive and the most up-to-the-second, is the claim set forth by the enterprising Grand management for the show it will offer the people of Wilmington today. In the first place the recent world's championship baseball series, as played by the Giants and Athletics, will be presented. it was only the other day that these games were played and yet the cozy, handsome Grand will offer them today, and in two big reels. It is the most wonderful offering of the day and the Grand management is to be congratulated upon its big bit of enterprise and also upon the fact that the price of admission will not be advanced from 5 cents. In order to give everyone amp.e opportunity to witness the pictures, that have not seen the regular game the Grand has gone to an extra expense to get it. They will always be an extra feature, as the regular show will be given today. There are 2,000 feet of baseball film alone.

Besides the world series there will be offered today three other films—think of it. They will include such big successes as "The Broken Parole," "Dan Greegan's Ghost, "His Hoodoo".

Vaudeville at Academy.

The vaudeville at the Academy of Music will have an entire change or programme today and tomorrow. There will not be any vaudeville on Saturday night. Besides the Belmont Comedy Quartette, which will still be the feature for today and tomorrow there will be four extra acts of entirely new talent. The new acts will be Miss Dorothy Hays, "that irresistible girl with the double voice"; Nevins and Brown, refined comedy entertainers; Elmore and Bartlett, the leading lady and the old maid, and Mr. Herbert Smith, the celebrated minstrel man. This new bill promises to be the best yet, and the management wish to particularly impress the public with the fact that there will be no vaudeville Saturday so that everyone can see the big show either today or tomorrow. Just think, five big vaudeville acts together with moving pictures all for 10 and 15 cents.

LYCEUM DATE CHANGED.

Opening Number at Boys' Brigade Will be Given November 5th.

It was learned yesterday that the first date for the opening of the Boys' Brigade Lyceum Course was necessarily changed from Friday night, November 7th, to Wednesday night, November 5th. This will prove more satisfactory, however, than the original date as it will not interfere with the many singers of the various church choirs of the city as well as the organists, most of whom have tickets to this course.

This opening number is to be a real musical treat as Madame Grace Hall-Riheldaffer is a soprano of the highest ability, possessing a voice of the most brilliant purity, flexibility and range. She sings with a grace which is seldom seen or heard. She is recognized by both press and public as one of the greatest American sopranos.

Her recent tour of the Southwest was one continuous ovation from beginning to end.

RETURNS TO NEW YORK.

Local Business Men Take Charge of Arrangements for New Line.

Capt. M. L. Gilbert, who has been in the city for the past week working on a proposition to put on a line of freight steamers between Wilmington and Baltimore, returned to New York last night, and the matter is now left in the hands of local shippers who are interested in securing the new line. Capt. Gilbert secured a large number of subscriptions to the stock, although it is understood that all of the $25,000, which Wilmington business men are asked to subscribe as a guarantee of their support, has not yet been taken. Capt. Gilbert came here at the instance of the Chamber of Commerce, who two weeks ago appointed a committee to investigate the proposed project. This committee has not yet made its report as to the feasibility of the proposition, but it is likely that something of a definite nature will be done by the Chamber within the next few days.

TWO HOUSES BURNED.

Explosion of Oil Stove Starts Destructive Blaze on Queen Street.

An explosion of an oil stove in the home of J. H. Jenkins, No. 1303 Queen street, yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, started a blaze which destroyed the house and its contents and also the adjoining residence, occupied by Caroline Jackson, colored, before the firemen were able to get it under control. Another house, at No. 1307 Queen street, was damaged to some extent also by the fire. All the houses belonged to Mr. A. O. Schuster, and his loss is in the neighborhood of $1,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire department responded promptly to the alarm, which was turned in from Box 57, but the firemen were unable to reach the scene of the fire until it had gained such headway that the two houses were consumed. Had it not been for their efforts, other houses would have been burned, also.

STEAMER SWINGS INTO DOCKS.

Wharf Broken Up, Gasoline Boat Smashed and Other Damage.

While proceeding up the river yesterday afternoon in tow of the tug Navassa, the British steamer Norton, inward bound with cargo of fertilizer, swung astern with the tide near the foot of the Market house, crashed into the wharf of Mr. W. H. Yopp, the fish dealer, knocked askew a fish house on the wharf and damaged to some extent the concrete around the building. About foot of Dock street, the gasoline boat Shamrock, outward bound with cargo of mullet barrels, was smashed and more or less damage resulted. It is also reported that a flat in the vicinity was sunk and at least one man on some river craft plunged overboard when the crash came. The damage is unofficially reported as being rather large.

Mr. Gore Secures Specimens.

Mr. R. F. Gore, the clever and genial rural letter carrier of this city, yesterday presented the local office of The Star with a splendid specimen of the Venus fly-trap which he secured from the lowlands near Wilmington. An account was printed in The Star yesterday of this remarkable product of the vegetable kingdom which attracted the attention of Mr. Gore, who has for years been instrumental in securing specimens for persons throughout the country who are interested in this strange plant. Postmaster Green has referred the gentleman in New Orleans, who wants to get some of the plants, to Mr. Gore.

DEDICATE MEMORIAL.

Grover Cleveland Memorial at Princeton Accepted.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 22.—Princeton University's graduate college and the Grover Cleveland Memorial tower were dedicated today.

Gifts amounting to $2,850,000 for the erection and endowment of the college enabled Princeton to realize an idea conceived 20 years ago—the housing of graduate students in a body. The Tower was presented to the University by the Cleveland Monument Association which received gifts from all over the United States.

President Hibben, of Princeton, presided and about him were William H. Taft, who delivered the memorial address on Grover Cleveland; Representatives of practically all the universities and colleges in the United States and Canada, hundreds of alumni and delegates from English, German and French universities.

Dean Andrew F. West, of the graduate college, to whom most of the credit has been given for the erection of the college, delivered an address.

President Hibben introduced the foreign representatives who made congratulatory addresses. The presentation to the university of the Cleveland memorial towers was made by Richard V. Lindabury, president of the Cleveland Memorial Association.

Former President Taft's estimate of Grover Cleveland as expressed in his oration was:

"Mr. Cleveland was not a great lawyer; he was not a great economist; he was not a great orator; but he was a great President, and a great man, and he was there because of the strong mind, clear intelligence and wide knowledge of affairs.

"He was a partisan and believed in parties as every one must who wishes popular government to succeerd; but he looked upon the party as an instrument of good government and when it was made an instrument to accomplish purposes disastrous to the public weal he refused to follow it."

A. & M.-UNIVERSITY GAME.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—Claiming the Agricultural and Mechanical College has paid men on its football team, University of North Carolina today cancelled arrangements for the first game in eight years on November 15th. The objection is ineligibility under agreement of Tenney, two years back at Brown; McDougal, end at Exeter; Sullivan, 1911 back at Holy Cross. A. & M. claims the men are eligible.

FLEET PREPARING FOR TRIP.

Nine Battleships Are Coaling for Mediterranean Cruise.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 22.—The nine battleships of the Atlantic fleet under the command of Rear Admiral Badger, to depart Saturday for a cruise in the Mediterranean sea are now rapidly coaling and taking on ammunition and other stores preparatory to the trip.

A large part of the coal is being sent on barges from the Norfolk navy yard. The ammunition is being sent from the local magazine at St. Juliens Creek.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt has been designated to represent the Navy Department when the battleships sail from Hampton Roads Saturday. The nine ships comprising the fleet that will make the trip are the Wyoming, flagship of Admiral Badger; the Utah, Florida, Arkansas, Delaware, Vefmont, Connecticut, Kansas and Ohio. These vessels will be preceded by the auxilaries Celtric, supply ship; Solace, hospital ship; Cyclops, Orien and Jason, colliers.

Seamen from the fleet in Hampton Roads are now being given final shore liberties prior to the departure of the ships.

Fifteen hundred men brought from the Naval Training Station on the Great Lakes will make the cruise to the Mediterranean on the battleships of the Atlantic fleet sailing Saturday. Supplies pu' aboard the ships today include 40,000 pounds of fresh beef and 12,000 dozen eggs.

The battleships Virginia, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Nebraska, of the fleet, sail October 29th for Vera Cruz, Mexico.

Naples, Oct. 22.—The Duke of the Abruzzi, commander of the Italian navy, with the battleship Regina Elana as his flagship, has been entrusted with the duty of receiving the American squadron, which will arrive in Italian waters about the middle of November.

The commander of the American squadron and his staff, it is said, will be received by King Victor Emmanuel, at Rome. Other officers and members of the crews will be received in audience by the Pope.

FORMER POLICE ON STAND.

Gives Evidence Favoring Defense in Russian Trial.

Kiev, Russia, Oct. 22 —The former chief of police of Kiev, Krassovsky, gave important testimony today at the trial of Mendel Beiliss, charged with the murder of the Christian boy, Andrew Yushinsky, in March, 1911.

He had investigated the crime and declared on the stand that he had found nothing to implicate Beiliss.

Disguised as a workman, the police inspector said he had mingled with the employes at the brick works. He learned that the general opinion among them was that the crime had been committed by thieves.

The witness said Beiliss had been arrested by the secret police, the head of which body at Kiev at that time was Colonel Kuliabko whose name was notorious in connection with the assassination of Premier Stolypin.

That great importance attached to Krassovsky's evidence was indicated by the efforts of counsel representing the anti-Semitic organizations to discredit his reputation. Krassovsky admitted he had been proceeded against five times during his official career, dating back 20 years.

Catherine Diakonoff, under examination most of the afternoon and evening, told an extraordinary story. She described visits to evening parties given by Vera Tcheberiak in the Winter of 1910-11, where she met members of Vera's gang.

Two nights after the murder, said the witness, while sleeping on the floor near a bed at Vera's, her feet touched a sack at the bottom of the bed containing an object resembling a corpse. She was frightened and woke Vera, who said "don't worry, it is only rags."

She described subsequent adventures with a mysterious masked man. She testified that he asked her to take part in the murder of Krassovsky, and other officials who were trying to solve the mystery of Yushinsky's fate.

On promising to help provided he would tell her who murdered Ushinsky, she said he described the murder in Vera Tcheberiak's flat by Vera's gang.

FIFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION.

Good Roads Association Meeting at Asheville.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 22.—With more than 100 delegates in attendance—representing the eight Southern States comprising the organization—the fifth annual convention of the Southern Apalachian Good Roads Association convened here this morning. Morning and afternoon sessions were held, and social features included an automobile ride over the paved streets of Asheville and a banquet given by the management of a local hotel.

The morning session was featured by addresses of welcome and responses and speeches by Governor Locke Craig, of North Carolina, and President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway Company. At the afternoon session, the attendants upon the convention heard reports of the progress being made in road development by the States holding membership in the organization, North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Georgia, West Virginia, Alabama and Kentucky.

TO INTERPRET TREATY.

Supreme Court Called on to Give Its Opinion.

Washington, Oct 22 —The Supreme Court was called upon today to interpret the Spanish-American treaty ending the war of 1898 and settle the question of whether a British firm, the Australia and China Telegraph Company, is entitled to annual subsidies from the United States which the Spanish government agreed to pay for the construction of a cable line from the Philippines to China.

Justice Day, of the Supreme Court, was chairman of the American delegation which drafted the treaty. Attorneys for the government argued that the American delegates, through Justice Day, repeatedly refused to become responsible for the obligation of the Spanish government.

"But that did not prevent the United States becoming responsible under international law," Justice Day commented.

APPEAL IN TOOP CASE.

Anti-Alien Land Ownership Law Causes Complications.

Washington, Oct. 22.—An appeal in the Toop land case questioning the constitutionality of the Nebraska alien land law, was filed today in the Supreme Court.

It is said to be the nearest approach to the California alien land law controversy which has ever been before the Supreme Court. On that account its outcome will be awaited with keen interest.

The Toop case involves the right of William Toop and others, all British subjects, residing in England, to inherit an undivided two-thirds interest in the land of their uncle, John Toop, an Englishman, who became naturalized and acquired land nead Ulysses, Neb. This land company claims title on grounds that it purchased the lands from those of John Toop's nephews who were residents of the United States.

A Nebraska statute provides that land cannot be acquired by descent or purchase by non-resident aliens, though it permits the widow or heirs of aliens to reside on the land for ten years and sell it within that period to acquire it by becoming naturalized within that period.

Judge Munger, of the district Federal court of Nebraska, held that the Toops residing in England could not occupy the land in question for the ten year period because they were the heirs of a "citizen" and not an alien. This interpretation the attorneys hold, makes the law violate that provision of the 14th amendment which declares that no State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges of citizens of the United States.

Roosevelt Is Breakfasted and Visits Supreme Court.

Rio Janeiro, Oct. 22.—Theodore Roosevelt devoted this morning to a visit to the Supreme Court and a breakfast at the palace given in his honor by Marshal Hermes Fonsca.

Colonel Roosevelt sat at the right of the President and the American ambassador, Edward V. Morgan, at his left. The breakfast was attended by cabinet ministers, the presidents of Senate and the Chamber of the Deputies, the judges of the Supreme Court, the Mayor of Rio Janeiro and members of the municipal council and various other public officials.

Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Margaret Roosevelt, accompanied by several members of their party, visited Pao de Assucar, the ascent of the mountain being made by the aerial railway.

Colonel Roosevelt visited the military colleges in the afternoon where he was greeted by the minister of war and the directors. Toasts were exchanged and an inspection of the buildings followed. Later, the ex-President spoke before the Young Men's Christian Association. In the evening Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt and several members of their party attended the Russian ballets at the Municipal Theatre.

President Wilson Explains As to Urgent Deficiency Bill.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 22.—In signing the urgent deficiency bill with the Overman amendment, which takes deputy marshals and collectors out of the civil service, President Wilson, while declaring that these men were never intended to be under the protection of the civil service law, strongly intimates that should Republicans be fired from their jobs solely upon political grounds that he will have something to say.

In his statement the President makes it clear that he considers that he has the same right to interfere, should he believe that discrimination is being practiced, as he had before the bill was signed.

On this subject Mr. Wilson says: "The control of the whole method and spirit of the administration of the provision in this bill which concerns the appointment of these officers is no less entirely in my hands now than it was before the bill became law. My warm advocacy and support both of the principle and of the bona fide practice of civil service reform is known to the whole country, and there is no danger that the spoils principle will creep in with my approval or connivance."

A. Champion, of Oxford, who took the examination for inspector under the physical valuation law, received the highest mark of any applicant for the place. He will be appointed to a good position within a short time.

Braxton Webb, a clerk in the postoffice at Statesville, through the efforts of Senator Overman, will be allowed to take the examination for a position as postoffice inspector.

Mrs. H. R. Bryant, of Newbern, and daughter, Mrs. Bradford, are here.

DRY LAND CRUISE.

President Wilson and Secretary Daniels Review Battalion.

Washington, Oct. 22.—President Wilson and Secretary Daniels took a dry land "cruise" tonight when they visited the District of Columbia Naval Militia battalion at its armory which had been transformed to resemble the deck of a battleship.

The occasion was the review of the battalion by the commander-in-chief of the fighting forces of the United States and the head of the naval establishment.

When the President appeared he was "piped" over the side and ceremoniously escorted to the quarter deck to greet the senior officers. The battalion then passed in review and later went through the drill manual.

President Wilson did not speak, but Secretary Daniels complimented the battalion upon its appearance, saying that the naval reserve of the country, at the first alarm of war always has been ready to preserve the traditions of the American navy.

VICE PRESIDENT SPEAKS.

Marshall Delivers Extemporaneous Talk on Public Opinion.

Danville, Va., Oct. 22.—Over 8,000 people of Halifax county heard Vice President Marshall deliver an extemporaneous speech on "Public Opinion" at the county fair at South Boston today at noon.

He spoke for 50 minutes and was introduced by Senator Claude Swanson. The Vice President told of his early life in Indiana and among other things that he had been frequently told to go to Halifax and was glad to be there and find himself among friends. He urged the citizens not to forget their public duties and suggested frequent social meetings in villages where public issues might be discussed. Mr. Marshall left for Washington tonight.

Steel Lined
SHOT SHELLS

IN the making of shot shells, the greatest forward step since the invention of smokeless powder is the steel lining to grip the powder and concentrate all the drive of the explosion back of the shot.

It's a Remington special invention—that steel lining. You find it in the Remington-UMC Arrow and Nitro Club. These steel-lined shells get their shot to the target quicker than any other shell known to the shooting fraternity. They cut down the guess-work about lead and angles. They put the center of the load right on your bird.

MODEL HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Guilford Superintendent Is Assisting With Health Exhibit at State Fair—Grain for Seeding—Deaths in Greensboro.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 22.—Dr. W. M. Jones, superintendent of Guilford county's model health department, is in Raleigh this week assisting the management of the State Fair in giving its exhibit in the interest of public health. So well has Guilford's health department been conducted that it has not only attracted attention in North Carolina but its fame has gone beyond the State bounds. Dr. Jones must frequently decline calls to make addresses and assist in getting the work started in other places in the union. As many calls as he can answer he attends to and assists in the work of getting other counties in line. The work of the department has meant a great deal to Guilford along lines of sanitation and the prevention of diseases and contagion.

Secretary Garland Daniel, of the Central Carolina Fair Association, is giving away to farmers who apply for it and agree to plant it grain for seeding purposes which was on exhibit at the annual fair. Those who get the seed agree to plant them and to make exhibits at the next fair. In this way Mr. Daniel believes that interest in the agricultural exhibits will be increased and that farmers will be encouraged to give more attention to seed selection.

A government expert will soon come to Guilford county to work out a plan of rural delivery for the entire county, such as no other county in the State except Mecklenburg has. This will mean the extension and re-districting of the routes in rural Guilford so that routes will reach everybody in the county. As they now stand the routes are not formed so as to serve everybody but have been gotten up by the more prosperous communities, leaving the isolated farmers to get their mail as best they can.

The Greensboro carrier service has been strengthened by the addition of a new man and another city carrier will soon be added.

Mrs. Martha Jane Tucker, widow of the late Council A. Tucker, died yesterday afternoon at her home, after an illness that extended over three years. The body was carried to Pleasant Garden, this county, on the afternoon train today and the funeral and interment were held there this afternoon. Rev. C. E. Hodgin conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Sharpe, of that place. The deceased was a daughter of the late Albert Rankin and a member of one of Guilford's most prominent families. She was 75 years of age and had lived a consecrated Christian life. Three daughters and four sons survive, who are: Mrs. W. F. Lowe, C. L. Tucker, Charles A. Tucker, of this city; Mrs. J. F. Ross and E. R. Tucker, of Pleasant Garden; Mrs. R. A. Brown, wife of the pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Waycross, Ga.; and John W. Tucker, of New York City. The pallbearers were: W. L. Trotter, J. W. Merritt, A. F. Brooks, R. N. Hadley, B. C. Sharpe and R. A. Erwin.

Kalil Honey, of Winston-Salem, died at St. Leo's Hospital shortly before midnight last night after he had been a patient at the institution for two weeks. He was 45 years of age and was born in Syria. He had been in the grocery business in Winston-Salem for 18 years. A nephew, Joseph Honey, who was with him when the end came, is the only relative in this country. A brother who was in business with him, died two years ago. Two sisters and two brothers live in Syria. The funeral was held today in Winston in the Catholic church.

L. H. Dunivent, a Confederate veteran and an old resident of Greensboro, died last night at his home on North Greene street. He had been ill for six months. A widow and nine children survive. The funeral was held at Mt. Pleasant church this afternoon, followed by interment in the church burying ground.

WESTERN PRONG S. SCHOOL.

Mr. Frank Gough and Co-workers of Lumberton Pay a Visit.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clartkon, N. C., Oct. 22.—Sunday the Western Prong Baptist Sunday School enjoyed a rare treat by having Messrs. Frank Gough and his co-workers of the Sunday School, C. B. Skipper, E. B. Freeman and J. P. Stephens, of the Lumberton Baptist church, with them. At 11 o'clock the exercises began. There was music by the Sunday School which had been in training by Mr. Samuel Sellers, the efficient teacher, after which Mr. Gough in a most interesting way presented the programme and introduced his coworkers mentioned above, in a very pleasing address which was immediately followed by several quartette selections by the gentlemen. Then they took charge of the school and gave them methods of teaching which were not only very instructive but interesting. The Barnesville Band, consisting of Messrs. H. J. Sellers, W. E. Waters, William Rodgers and R. Peterson, was also present and furnished the audience with several numbers which were greatly enjoyed. The exercises were resumed after a bountiful spread prepared by the good ladies, Mr. Gough in charge of the ceremonies. Music was again in order just before Mr. Gough made another very interesting address on different topics of Sunday School work. Any Sunday School is fortunate who can have a visit from these gentlemen. Mr. Gough made an appeal for the Thomasville Orphanage and a good collection was taken. Supt. W. O. Page and his teachers are to be congratulated upon securing the services of this party.

COTTON ADVANCING.

Weather Conditions Urge the Prices Upward With Still Better Prospects.

New York, Oct. 22.—Cotton was active and excited again today with December contracts selling above 14 cents for the first time this season, or fully $1.70 per bale above yesterday's closing, and $15.70 per bale above the low level of last Summer.

This big advance followed the sharp reaction which resulted from realizing on the publication of frost news yesterday. There was much less long cotton for sale today while fresh buying was evidently inspired by reports that the Wintry weather in the South had justified a further reduction in new crop estimates and apprehension that the firmness of Liverpool foreshadowed a more active demand from foreign spinners.

TUCKER WILL CASE REVERSED

Immense Raleigh Estate to Remain in Hands of Trustee—Other Decisions by Supreme Court Yesterday—Raleigh Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—The Supreme Court announced today its decision that the will of the late Mrs. Florence P. Tucker, establishing a trust for her estate for the benefit of her children instead of distributing her estate of more than one million dollars among her children at her death, is valid.

One of the heirs contended that the will of the late Rufus Tucker, her husband, did not convey his property to Mrs. Tucker in fee simple. Judge Carter, in the trial below, held that there was not fee simple conveyance to Mrs. Tucker but the Supreme Court holds the reverse, which means that the immense estate will continue in the hands of Cary K. Durfey as surviving trustee.

The complete list of opinions follows: Johnson vs. Seaboard Air Line, on merits, new trial; motion for new trial on account of newly-discovered evidence denied; Simmons vs. McCullin, Sampson, plaintiff's appeal, error, defendant's appeal, no error; Bell School vs. Pierce, Duplin, affirmed; Cutlaw vs. Gray, Lenoir, reversed; Fellows, et al., vs. Durfey, Wake, the Tucker will case), reversed; Brewer vs. Wayne, Wake, reversed; State vs. Watkins, Columbus, new trial; Locklear vs. Paul, Robeson, new trial; Raeford Lumber Co., vs. Rockfish Trading Co., Hoke, no error; Knight vs. Foster, New Hanover, reversed; Withers vs. Commissioners, Columbus, affirmed; Page vs. Sprunt, New Hanover, affirmed; Elgin City Bank Co., vs. McEachern, Robeson, no error; Smith vs. Agricultural Society, Cumberland, reversed; in re will of Margaret McKenzie, Cumberland, affirmed.

Speakers at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Division, Confederate Veterans, tonight deplored the fact that not a single town invited the old soldiers to hold their reunion during the present year. In contrast to this speakers pointed out how well the soldiers were treated at the Gettysburg reunion.

Gen. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, was re-elected commander and Maj. H. A. London, of Pittsboro, adjutant.

Following the meeting of the division the North Carolina Confederate Veterans' Association, organized in 1865, held its annual meeting. Maj. W. A. Graham was re-elected president, and J. C. Birdsong, secretary. The Raleigh drum corps rendered war-time airs.

HOLD ANNUAL MEETING.

Stockholders of N. Y., N. H. & H. Railroad Gather at New Haven.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 22.—Opposition to commending th board of directors of its acts, was the chief cause of a protracted annual meeting of the stockholders of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company here today.

After more than two hours' debate that part of the order of business which read: "To approve the acts and recommendations of the board of directors" was stricken out.

The annual report and changes in the by-laws were adopted. A board of directors was chosen by stock votes ranging from 994,734 for William Rockefeller, to 1,013,562 for Howard Elliott, with President Hadley, of Yale University, second with 1,013,524.

The chief change in the by-laws was that creating the office of chairman of the board of directors which in effect gives each subsidiary property of the New Haven system its own president and directorate with Mr. Elliott chairman of the board of directors to direct the policies of the whole, while each of the properties is under its own executive.

C. H. Venner, of New York, who had opened the discussion in opposition to approving the directors' acts, offered a resolution which instructed the directors to take no steps toward issuing $67,000,000 in debenture bonds until the Supreme Court of Massachusetts had passed upon the legality of the issue.

Director Cuyler replied to Mr. Venner saying that Mr. Venner could not realize the situation the road was in. There are $40,000,000 debentures due in December and no money to meet them. "It is a monstrous proposition Mr. Venner puts before us," said Cuyler.

Former Govrnor M. G. Bulkley, of Connecticut, said that tabling Mr. Venner's resolution and spreading its contents on the records would serve every purpose.

The motion to table the Venner resolution and spread it on the minutes, was carried and the meeting adjourned.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 22.—Work on the first link of Edgecombe county's good roads, as recently provided for in the passage of a bond issue of $200,000 for the building of roads and bridges, has been started between Mildred and Coneto, under the supervision of Mr. E. O. Hathaway, senior highway engineer of the Office of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture. This new road will connect Mildred and Coneto and will be of sandclay for the entire distance of three and one-half miles. As planned, the road will run parallel with the Plymouth branch of the Atlantic Coast Line for a distance of about two miles, and then tie in with the present road, thus eliminating two grade crossings, and having only two curves. The work on this new highway is being done by the regular road force.

Mr. Hathaway is a highway engineer of considerable experience, having been division highway engineer for the State of New Hampshire for years. Since entering the government service Mr. Hathaway has dealt with many different road problems. He came to Tarboro from Anderson, S. C., and will likely remain here until the Mildred-Coneto road is completed.

SCHOONER BLOWN FROM COURSE

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 22.—The three masted schooner Bradford C. French, from the island of Viques, near Porto Rico, today with a cargo of molasses is in Hampton Roads harbor, after an effort of 35 days to reach her port of destination.

She was within 200 miles of New York when struck by the last coast storm and driven below Hatteras. The schooner made the Virginia Capes without fuel or water. The vessel is lot greatly damaged. She will depart tonight.

MERGER OF SOUTHPORT BANKS

Business of Two Institutions to be Taken Care of Through Bank of Southport—Announcement by Presidents.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., Oct. 22.—At the annual meeting on last Monday night, of the stockholders of the Bank of Brunswick, a proposition was presented by one of the stockholders, which he had received from a prominent stockholder in the Bank of Southport, looking to and outlining a plan, whereby a consolidation of the banking interests of Southport might be effected.

The proposition was carefully considered by the stockholders, the effect of a consolidation in its bearing upon the individual stockholders of the Bank of Brunswick, as well as upon the business interests of the city and county, and by unanimous vote it was declared that the consolidation be consummated upon the terms as agreed upon by the directors of the two banks.

In this connection the following is made public:

"Announcement.—Believing that it was for the best interests of the business community that the Bank of Brunswick and the Bank of Southport, consolidae their business, and the proposition having met with favor with the stockholders and directors of the two institutions, this is to announce to the business public, that on Wednesday, October 22nd, 1913, the two banks were consolidatel after due formalities, and thereafter the business of the two banks will be transacted through the Bank of Southport. All checks of depositors on the Bank of Brunswick will be honored by the Bank of Southport.

"We take pleasure in stating that by this consolidation, Brunswick county now has one of the strongest banking institutions in this section, and we bespeak for the Bank of Southport the hearty co-operation of the entire people of Brunswick county.

W. H. PYKE.
Pres. Bank of Brunswick.

For Bright Eyes and Clear Nose

Remarkable Catarrh Cure That Gets Right into the Affected Parts and Stops Gatherings.

It is definitely known that catarrh can be cured by the simple process of inoculating the blood with antidotal remedies that stop inflammatory conditions throughout the mucous linings of all the organs of the body. This is done with the famous Swift's Sure Specific, or as it is widely known, S. S. S. It is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, through all the veins and arteries, and enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all catarrhal pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in the process of purification.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache and steadily improved nasal condition.

For special advice on any blood disease write to the Swift Specific Co., 223 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not delay to get a bottle of S. S. S. from your druggist.

Always insist that you want S. S. S. and nothing else. Beware of all attempts to sell you a substitute.

To the Sheriff of New Hanover County: Greeting:—

Whereas, Lately in the Justice's Court in and for the County of New Hanover, at a session of said court, held on the 14th day of October, 1913, in the office of the undersigned, in the City of Wilmington, N. C., Judgment Nisi for $200.00 was rendered in favor of the State against John W. Steers and his security, to wit, the sum of $200.00 deposited as bail, according to the provisions of an act of the General Assembly, condemning bail for the personal appearance of said John W. Steers at Justice's Court, in the matter of the State against John W. Steers, then pending in said court, I therefore command you that you make known to said John W. Steers to be and to appear before the undersigned on the 25th day of Oct., 1913, at 9 o'clock A. M., and show cause, if any he has, why the $200.00 deposited by him for his appearance at said court on the 14th day of Oct., 1913, should not be condemned and paid over to the School Fund of said County, and why final judgment should not be entered against him, under said undertaking; And the undersigned having been apprised of the fact that the said John W. Steers having fled the State of North Carolina to avoid standing trial, this notice is ordered to be published in The Morning Star, a daily newspaper published in New Hanover County, notifying the said defendant John W. Steers to appear before me at 9:00 o'clock A. M., October 25, 1913, and answer said notice.

This Oct. 14, 1913.

If you are going to knock, why not knock down the persimmon now that the frost is making it just right for beer?

It remains to be seen whether notoriety will help Sulzer more than his reputation in his future political career.

The South will soon commence buying imported cabbages. We ought to quit letting others feed us on what we can grow ourselves.

A Wilmington man says if he were going to raise two sons for the political hustings he would name one Bluff and the other one Bluffer.

"The same old Bill" seems to be different in his new party alignment. Governor Sulzer's having become a Bull Mooser, may bring Col. Roosevelt to his defense.

The early frosts will make the short cotton crop shorter, but higher in price. Disasters to the crop these times seem to hurt consumers but do not affect the producers.

Washington correspondents insist every now and then that the administration friends of ex-Governor Glenn will "land" him. Wonder if their real purpose is not to shelve the gentleman?

A Chicago clairvoyant who has been arrested for fraud confesses that she made a half-million dollars telling people's fortunes. She was making sure of her own fortune while she was duping other people.

The Greenville (S. C.) Piedmont says a school fair is planned for Greenville county next Spring. It is to be held under the auspices of the county teachers' association, and thus the schools will take a hand in demonstration work and introduce a new educational feature of a distinctly constructive character.

The Sulzer episode in New York eliminates that State for many years to come from being considered as a good field for Democratic Presidential possibilities. Republican politicians have furnished the same sort of reasons why the Republicans won't run over themselves to nominate a New York Republican for President. If the Progressives get wise they also may shy at following the lead of a distinguished New Yorker.

It may be to the interest of some North Carolinian to state that a prize of $1,000 has been waiting in Philadelphia since 1856 for the American who shall be the first to determine by experiment whether or not infra-red rays are transmitted with the same speed as other light rays. Well, don't the red rays become red because they are slower than the white rays? Rays seem to be reddest closer to the ray centre, but why should one worry about that thousand?

Says the Charlotte Chronicle: "One of the saddest signs of the times is the likelihood that Governor Blease is going to the United States Senate." We are puzzled to know whether Blease is strong with South Carolinians because they know the worst against him, or whether it is because he has the courage of his convictions. Here is how he stands: "I am in favor of plenty of good horse racing; plenty of honest poker playing, and plenty of game chicken fighting." Few politicians would dare to come out in the open like that.

New York papers which defended Governor Sulzer almost up to the hour of his impeachment, accuse Tammany of bringing about the downfall of Sulzer because he would not do Boss Murphy's bidding. Now those once pro-Sulzer papers declare that in convicting Sulzer Tammany convicts itself, because the Boss knew Sulzer when he was made Governor and were responsible for him. Wouldn't the same kind of reasoning convict the newspapers which supported Sulzer till he was almost in the ditch? Probably they didn't know Sulzer and yet they supported him. Isn't it barely possible that Murphy didn't know him any better than the newspapers did? Evidently the newspapers stuck to Sulzer either because they considered him worthy or because Tammany was fighting him.

CHARLESTON'S FREIGHT RATE FIGHT.

Charleston names Wilmington and Norfolk as co-respondents in her efforts to get a divorce from discriminatory freight rates, as alleged by the business men of the South Carolina port. It was mentioned in the Charleston meeting a few days ago that the railroads have so favored Wilmington and Norfolk as to make competition on the part of Charleston a very difficult matter, and while we have not seen any record of the special instances of such favoritism, we wonder if Wilmington's rates are better in comparison than have been supposed.

However, none of the ports seem to be satisfied. Norfolk has organized to fight discriminatory rates, Wilmington has been in the fight in North Carolina, Charleston is raising a fund of $21,000 to fight her cause, and Savannah is complaining that she does not get the rates that her importance as a port deserves. In discussing the present movement at Charleston to fight for better rates, the Charleston Post remarks:

"The movement launched last night by the freight and transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, and captained by the city authorities and the several commercial bodies as a joint fighting force, is a frontal attack upon an evil that has long held the commercial enterprise of this community in restriction—the glaring discrimination of the railroads against the port and jobbing center of Charleston. The rates of freight from Western centers to this city, compared with those prevailing to Norfolk and to Wilmington are almost prohibitive to competition by the business men of Charleston in export and in domestic commerce, and that the commercial interests of this city have been able to make the progress they have made in the face of this discrimination is of itself a remarkable tribute to the capacity of Charleston business men."

Of course, statements like the above can be made in a general way, but it would be interesting to know what the real facts in the case are. Yet the Charleston Post says "an examination of the schedules shows that the differentials in favor of the Virginia and North Carolina ports remain," while Charleston is where she was two decades ago. Again The Post insists that "the railroads have or think they have larger interests in Norfolk and in Wilmington, and they continue to shower their favors there and to leave Charleston to look out for itself, and to furnish them with large volumes of outgoing freights in exchange for no consideration on incoming freights."

We mention this to show that similar complaints are made by all the ports, and if they all have just ground for complaints, it would seem that there must sooner or later be a re-adjustment of rates along the entire Atlantic seaboard.

THE MUDDLE IN NEW YORK.

The impeachment of William Sulzer, lately Democratic Governor of New York, and now Bull Mooser nominee for the General Assembly, all within a few days, is one of the strangest occurrences in American politics. For another party to pick up a man immediately after he has been discredited and thrown over by another party, is an unheard of turn in politics, so far as our recollection goes. The Bull Moosers were quick to pick up Sulzer and nominate him for the Legislature from an Eastside district in New York City. The deposed Governor was nominated while the bands played and the crowds cheered, and it was one time when "the rank and file," as Colonel Roosevelt calls them, ran away with things and took matters in their own hands.

All that was done contrary to the advice of the leaders of the district committees and such prominent Bull Moosers as George W. Perkins and others. Meanwhile, it is said the voters of the district are largely Jewish and that they certainly will elect Sulzer over any other candidate, on account of his Jewish extraction. Thus Murphy's enemy is liable to secure what he will boast of as a triumph over the Tammany chief.

In the meantime, Sulzer is making New York ring with his charges against Murphy and other Tammany Democrats, including Judge McCall, the regular Democratic nominee for Mayor. Judge McCall has declared that certain of Sulzer's statements are lies, and with charges and counter-charges flying thick, the probability is that New York is to witness the worst political muddle it has ever seen.

A STEP BACKWARD.

It is to be regretted that three of the five members of City Council yesterday threw down the bars for the obstruction of the streets by merchandise displays on the sidewalks. It is refreshing to know, however, that the Mayor is to proceed against violators under the State law prohibiting obstructions and here is strength to his arm. Citizens of Wilmington are paying a rather high tax rate for the "free and unobstructed use" of the streets and sidewalks of the city—many of them pay for practically nothing else at the hands of the city government—and they are certainly entitled to this privilege. The ordinance to which Wilmington goes back is that which was in force during Wilmington's village days and it is to be regretted that the interest of the few is to be conserved to the detriment of the masses. We care nothing for what Councilman Jones thinks of the plaudits of the press, but we do know that the new sidewalk ordinance will not bring him the plaudits of the people.

Thanks to the untiring zeal and enthusiasm of Street Superintendent McAllister, Wilmington now has cleaner streets than ever before and it is a pity that the bars are thrown down for the cluttering up of the sidewalks in an unsanitary and an unsatisfactory display of merchandise on what Governor Sulzer would no doubt call the "people's highway."

Of course, for the present, it is a matter of no great moment, but it is likely to become so, and it is to be regretted that the zeal that was displayed at the same session of Council for "opening up Front street" was not displayed in keeping the sidewalks open.

ALL WORKING FOR CHARLESTON.

The Greenville Chamber of Commerce, doing business in the mountain region of South Carolina, is co-operating with the Charleston Chamber of Commerce in the interest of the port of Charleston. Charleston is recognized throughout South Carolina as the port of the State and the commercial bodies of the State are responsive to the appeal of the Charleston commercial organization that is in closer touch with the development of the port.

The port of Charleston has the State back of it and there is no wonder that it is rapidly developing into a deep water port. There is nothing to wonder at that Charleston's commerce greatly increased last year. No one need worry about how it is that Charleston is to be a coaling station and that Charleston is the site of the government's navy yard on the South Atlantic.

Intelligence and earnest work is being done for the port of Charleston and it is needless to point to the fact that results are manifesting themselves in a way that is greatly adding to the importance of the port on the eve of the commercial opening of the Panama canal. Work will tell. Co-operation all over South Carolina means something for the State's ocean gateway.

DOWN TO BRASS TACKS.

Wilmington needs a genuine campaign for more weekly pay rolls, like the movement started in New Orleans by the Association of Commerce, which recently adopted that name instead of the Progressive Union. The New Orleans organization has started out on a new basis and has employed an experienced industrial promoter to head the campaign to secure industries for New Orleans. The business community has subscribed $75,000 to carry on the work, as it requires money to do any thing, and as a first starter the promoter has issued a booklet concerning the advantages and adaptibilities of New Orleans. It is entitled, "Down to Brass Tacks," and it is liable to reach people that some indefinite advertisement would never reach.

"It costs more than $3,000,000 a week to run the city of New York." says the Manchester Union. At any rate, that is what it costs New York to support those who are giving her a run for her money.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The stockholders of the Seashore Hotel at Wrightsville always carry the old stocking along when they attend the annual meeting. This year they got a six per cent. dividend and none of it came from beer bottle foam, either.—Charlotte Observer.

Of course, there's no keeping up with, to say nothing of accounting for South Carolina names, but it looks rather curious for the North Carolina board of agriculture to be issuing a map that labels as "Horney" that county of our Southern neighbor whose name is spelled "Horry" and pronounced "Wah-ree." — Greensboro News.

With the newly organized Commercial Club and the Chamber of Commerce pulling together in harness, Wilmington ought to find the going much easaier than formerly. The business men of the seaport town seem to have made up their minds to make the best of the opportunities that have been so long besetting them on all sides.—Charlotte Observer.

North Carolina, which perhaps is more capable than any other known State of slopping over sentimentally in vacation from work and industry, has now developed an idea that ought to be worth while as an object lesson. We refer to the "Ex-Slave" reunion. Inaugurated in Richmond county last Summer, the gathering of the old-time darkeys did so much toward emphasizing the better relation between the races that the scheme has been wisely taken up by the Association which holds an annual fair for negroes in the city of Raleigh. The Raleigh Times is right in giving it its unqualified endorsement. — Columbia State.

Reports from South Georgia that the farmers have more hay than they can store go to show what an exceptionally fine farming section we have. The hay crop is said to be the largest ever made by the South Georgia farmers and with good prices anticipated they have every reason to feel optimistic. Why persons desiring farm lands should go anywhere else when a hearty welcome and abundant opportunity await them in Georgia is inexplicable. "Go West, young man," said Horace Greeley. That was good advice in Greeley's day but it is no longer the best to be given. Young men desiring to engage in agricultural pursuits and farmers desiring a change of location can do no better than to come to South Georgia and throw in their lot with the best people and the finest country the sun shines on.—Savannah News.

Beef can be bought at Matthews, a little station about eight miles down the Seaboard from Charlotte, at 15 cents a pound and no better beef can be secured anywhere. For the same class of steak, purchasers pay 28 and 30 cents at the local meat houses. What is the cause of this discrepancy? Do increased rents that certainly prevail here in comparison with the storage cost at Matthews account altogether for the wide difference in prices between beef of the same character? We would like to know this. There is no need for us to rear back and complain about the high cost of living, the unapproachable prices asked for the common commodities of the table until we inquire into the real significance of the situation. In this instance, there seems to be a local atmosphere that is largely determinate of prices for beef at least. If Charlotte dealers in meat are forced to ask twice as much for the commodity as a dealer in Matthews, because the Charlotte dealer is using Western beef whereas the Matthews dealer is selling local products, why is it that the farmers of Mecklenburg are not aiding in the solution of a problem that continues to arise in ever increasing perplexity to confound the consumers of the city. It might be well enough to see diligently into the causes of these things occasionally. —Charlotte Chronicle.

DEATH AT WILSON

Wilson, N. C. Oct. 22.—Mrs. R. L. Paschall, wie of Dr. R. L. Paschall died Tuesday morning at her home near Black Creek, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Paschall was 85 years of age. One of the most devoted members of the Christian Church and with a large circle of intimate friends, Mrs. Paschall was much loved. The funeral service was held this morning and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Lance of Stantonsburg. The remains were brought here for interment in Maplewood cemetary. Married 62 years ago to Dr. R. L. Paschall who survives her, there are also five children, Messrs J. B. and J. W. Paschall of Wilson, A. R. Paschall of Goldsboro, B. G. Paschall of Stantonsburg and Mrs. W. F. Patrick of Goldsboro.

Miss Jane Narron, 50 years old died Monday at the home of Mr. E. B. Baines. Miss Narron was a member of the Methodist church. The funeral service was conducted yesterday afternoon. Interment was at the Cozart cemetary.

Aaron Edwards was given a hearing yesterday before Judge George W. Connor on a writ of habeas. corpus. Edwards was arrested in Virginia and brought back here charged with an assault on W. Clay Patterson, of Elm City. Judge Connor ordered Edwards released but required him to give a bond to keep the peace.

It seems that Wilson is having a hard time with the municipal improvement bonds. The bonds were issued by virtue of an act of the legislature and ratified in a general election but the act provided that the bonds must be sold at par. On account of the sluggish condition of the bond market another bill was drawn and sent to the special session of the legislature and Wilson people have presumed that the bill was passed but now it seems that by some sort of a clerical error the records do not show that the bill passed the third reading in the Senate Consequently the town is up against the same condition as before the presentation of the bill and no relief can be had until the next session of the legislature. Bonds buyers are inquiring for the bonds and one firm had a representative here yesterday. In the meantime the Board of Public works is advertising for bids for the material for the re-building of the light and power plant and hoping that arrangements will be made to sell the bonds.

As an evidence of the need of houses in Wilson more than one hundred applications were made this week for one vacant residence. Wilson is growing steadily. The people are coming faster than the town can take care of them.

MANY ARRESTS AT KINSTON.

War for Law Enforcement—Tobacco Market Closes for Fair.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 22.—During the fiscal month ending yesterday the police of Kinston broke all records for number of arrests in any one month. Two hundred lawbreakers were haled into the municipal court at the day and night sessions and 157 of these were convicted, 20 sent up to Superior Court, and the rest either not finally settled or not convicted. In the opinion of close observers of local crime conditions, this does not denote an increase of crime in the city, but the reason is found in the rapid increase of the population and the activity of the police department. With all of this large number of arrests during the past month, no unusual amount of disorder could be noted. The stricter enforcement of the law, on the other hand, it is the opinion of many, has resulted in better order in the community. Enforcement of traffic regulations is responsible for many of the arrests. Another interesting feature of the police report vindicates absolutely the salary system as against the fee system used here. The aggregate paid for salaries in the department is by far greater than ever before in the city's history, and yet the net cost of the support of the police force for the month just ended was only $80, or about two-thirds of a cent per capita, to the taxpayer of the city, as the officers turned into the treasury in fees money enough to pay the expenses of the department except that amount. Carson Heath, the new chief of the force, is responsible to some extent for the improvement of the department in many ways, and the personnel of the force is of a very high order.

The tobacco market here will not be in operation tomorrow, and hundreds of employes of the warehouses, stemmeries and cooperages, and farmers of the surrounding tobacco region will attend the State Fair at Raleigh. The suspension of business was decided upon by the tobacco board of trade, and the occasion will allow a well-earned holiday for the men who have been working overtime most of the present season to handle the record "breaks." Managers, buyers, autcioneers, clerks and laborers, and in some instances the staffs of warehouses intact, will go to the capital city tonight and tomorrow morning to spend the day. As a result of the closing of the market the railroads are preparing to handle a large passenger business.

TAFT SAID TO AID MARBURG.

Senate Hears ex-President Asked Wilson to Retain Baltimorean.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The report was current at the Capitol yesterday that former President Taft had made a personal request of President Wilson that Theodore Marburg, of Baltimore, now Minister to Belgium, be permitted to serve at his post a few months longer.

This report was generally credited by several who are in touch with the situation, but no confirmation of it was obtained at the White House. Secretary Tumulty told The Sun correspondent that he had not heard of such request and did not believe it had been made.

During President Taft's administration, his family and Mr. Marburg's were on the most intimate terms of friendship. Mr. Taft repeatedly sought to send the Baltimore lawyer and publicist abroad, but not until the end of the administration was a post vacant that appealed to Mr. Marburg.

The republic of Colombia is said to have excellent regulations for its National forests. Lumbermen who take cedar and mahogany are required to plant young trees of the same species in the cut over spaces.

AT HARMONY CHURCH.

Rev. E. B. Carr's Unique Appeal for All to Assemble.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Harmony Church, Kerr, N. C., Oct. 22.—Rev. G. B. Starling, our good Methodist brother, of Fayetteville, N. C., has very kindly consented to preach two sermons for us at Harmony church, Kerr, on next Saturday, October 25th.

We hope to have a good service on this occasion, and a good large congregation. We never feel uneasy about having a good congregation at Harmony, because, if the weather is favorable, the people come to church. If we judge from past experience, we all know that they love to congregate at Harmony church, especially on Saturday before the fourth Sunday in May and October.

Why, I passed through one edge of Harmony congregation last Monday, and from what I saw and heard, the people are getting ready to come to Harmony next Saturday. The conversation ran as follows: One man said he would have to bake a nice ham, another man said he intended to kill a pig this week, and almost every person intends to bring along a chicken or two. While we expect to have a good dinner at Harmony next Saturday to satisfy the physical man, we expect above all things else to be fed with an abundance of spiritual food, and drink afresh of that fountain, of which, if a man drinks, he shall never thirst, but it shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life.

Come brethren, we are glad to have you. I want to shake hands with all you Harmony people next Saturday. Let all roads lead to Harmony church next Saturday and Sunday.

E. B. CARR, pastor.

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You

Costs Little, but there is Nothing Better at any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough almost instantly, and will usually conquer an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This recipe makes a pint—enough for a whole family. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.50.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it. Braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

You probably know the medical value of pine in treating bronchial asthma, bronchitis, spasmodic croup and whooping cough. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

RED CROSS ELECTS OFFICERS

The annual election of officers and the reading of the reports of the officers giving an outline of the work done the past year were the principal matters coming before the annual meeting of the Red Cross Society, which was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the parlors of the Colonial Inn. There was a large attendance of the members of the society.

Following are the names of the officers who were elected unanimously to serve for the ensuing year: Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, president; Rev. T. P. Noe, vice president; Mrs. S. Mendelsohn, secretary; Mrs. W. C. Munds, treasurer; Mrs. J. M. Solky, corresponding secretary; Miss Anna Bently, nurse.

Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, president during the past year, read her annual report which is as follows:

"At this meeting my term of office as president of the Wilmington Chapter of the National Red Cross Society terminates. As I wish to thank you for your aid in carrying on the work a brief summary of our efforts for the year will be in order. As is shown by the various reports of the other officers, our work has grown perceptibly which is evidenced by the general interest shown. There has been a marked increase in membership as well.

"The result of the seal campaign for 1912 showed a gain in sales of 30,000 over 1911, 90,500 having been sold in 1912. Of the amount received 25 per cent was sent to the State Secretary, Mrs. L. B. Myers, of Charlotte, to defray the expenses of the State campaign. The past year there were 400,000 seals sold in North Carolina, which brought in $4,000 for tuberculosis work. The cost of this campaign was only $375 or less than 10 per cent of the amount contributed. Of this amount $300 was spent in organization and publicity which was in itself the most effective kind of tuberculosis work. The work last year was experimental and proved that the State will respond to an appeal of this kind.

"All calls for action on the part of the Red Cross in Wilmington have received prompt attention. Two boxes of new clothing were sent to the Mississippi flood sufferers and $679 collected and sent to the Chinese famine sufferers, while the needs of all local patients have been carefully guarded. This was made possible by the generous action of both the Council and the Board of County Commissioners.

"Tuberculosis Day will be observed this year on December 7th when the sale of Red Cross seals will begin. Two reasons are responsible for the selection of this date, first because the last Sunday in October—the day celebrated last year—conflicts with Prison Sunday, and second, the selection of a Sunday early in December gives an added impetus to the Red Cross seal campaign. This year we hope to extend the activities of the occasion by reaching groups other than churches, such as schools, lodges, labor unions, etc. In other words, Tuberculosis Day should become an organized community effort to learn how to prevent this disease.

"Bulletins of suggestions, descriptive circulars, sermon outlines and other literature will be distributed. Cards bearing the motto, 'No Spitting No Tuberculosis' have been printed and placed in public buildings in course of construction, street cars, elevators and offices which it is hoped will prove to be a timely warning to the many callers who are interested in matters of health. The object of this society is to educate the general public and get people to thinking on the situation and to understand what we are trying to do.

"We desire the public to visit our beautiful sanitarium which will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks. We want them to watch us and to be convinced. The result will be, I'm sure, that the whole community will be working with us. We need financial support as well as moral support. We want every organization in the city to join hands with us and to make our work their work for the success of our undertaking depends upon the interest of the citizens of this community.

"Our Christmas seal campaign starts with Thanksgiving Day. Let us double our energies and sell the 100,000 ordered. Let dear old Santa Claus with his eight reindeer dashing across a field of snow carry the beautiful emblem of peace and good cheer to the utmost parts of the earth.

"The officers and executive committee wish to thank the Council and Commissioners for their courtesy, loyalty and substantial help, the health department for their interest and cooperation at all times, the Atlantic Coast Line for reduced rates and franking clothes to flood sufferers, Mr. A. W. Middleton, the proprietor of Colonial Inn, for his hospitality in extending us the use of the parlors for our meetings, The Morning Star and The Evening Dispatch for time and space kindly donated towards the publicity of our cause, and to each and everyone of our friends who have so generously contributed towards our work.

"In closing let me sound a note of commendation regarding the work of our Red Cross nurse, Miss Anna Bently, whose faithfulness has done much to alleviate suffering and to prevent the spread of disease. Personally let me thank the officers and each member of the executive board as well as each member of this society for their loyalty and support."

Mrs. S. Mendelsohn, the recording secretary, submitted her annual report which is as follows:

"The chapter has an enrollment of 208 members in good standing. During the past fiscal year the chapter held six regular meetings, one informal meeting and two board meetings. The average attendance at each meeting was 18. The total receipts were as follows: for membership dues, $208, for advance membership dues 8; for interest on bank deposit $.08; total, $226.08. The disbursements were as follows: paid to the Chapter treasury $99.50; paid American Red Cross $99.50; balance in bank and in cash $17.08.

"I wish to extend my hearty thanks to those of our members who assisted me in the work of collecting the membership dues, and especially to our most considerate chapter chairman, who in spite of her many other arduous and important duties, voluntarily undertook a large portion of this task. I hope you will pardon me if I venture a word to those members who do not seem to realize that to reach a membership of such extent by a personal appeal to each for payment of dues, means an expenditure of time and energy, which might easily be spared the officers who have charge of it.

"In these days of telephones it is a simple matter for all those who cannot attend the meeting appointed for the payment of dues to arrange with the secretary some convenient way for collecting them."

The treasurer's report showed that

OPEN UP FRONT STREET

Council Hears That Effort May be Made to Extend Thoroughfare from Union Station to River —Other Matters.

That an effort will be made to have Front street opened up from the union station at Red Cross street through to the river at Hilton on the north, appears to be certain from remarks made informally at the regular meeting of City Council yesterday morning. Members of Council learned with interest that there is prospect that those interested will make an effort to have the street opened.

The Atlantic Coast Line, it is said, will oppose any effort that is made to open the street, just on what grounds has not been set forth, so far as is known. General Manager W. N. Royall, of the A. C. L., stated to a Star representative some days ago in reply to a question about the rumor that the Coast Line was planning to open the street, that it would not be opened so far as the railroad was concerned. A great many people thought that with the construction of the massive and substantial concrete bridge over the tracks on Front street, the Coast Line would be only too glad to do its part in opening up Front street for traffic so as to relieve the grade crossing at Nutt street, but this appears not to be the case.

Counsel has been employed by owners of property beyond the union station to take up the question of having the street opened and bring suit if need be, it was stated at the Council meeting yesterday. Whether the city will join in this action in any way will probably be a matter for future consideration. At present it seems that the method of procedure has not been determined definitely.

Chief of Police Williams reported to Council that Orange street, on the north side, from Fourth to Fifth, is out of line, and recommended that the thoroughfare be straightened before any improved sidewalks are put down. The matter was referred to Councilman Merritt. Members of Council mentioned several other places where the streets need to be straightened, which caused Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, to recall that it is provided in an old city charter, probably 60 years old, that buildings overlaping the streets cannot be repaired but must be replaced with new buildings set in the proper place, when the old ones decay. Judge Bryan also recalled the provision in the charter and said that he thought it was still in force.

A letter was received from Mr. M. S. Willard calling attention to the fact that although it has been 16 months since the agreement between the Wilmington Suburban Company and the city was entered into, the city has not yet caused to be constructed the walks out Fourth street to Greenfield. Mr. Willard stated that unless something is done right away by the city his company may apply to the courts for release from the agreement, which stipulated among other things that the city was to have about 20 acres of land at Greenfield for park purposes. This land has already been deeded to the city, but is subject to the carrying out of the provisions of the contract. Mayor Moore stated that the city had built a street to Greenfield and had done some grading for the walks.

Upon motion of Councilman Loughlin the city attorney was instructed to look over the contract and all other papers bearing on the agreement, so as to be able to advise the Council when there is danger of losing the land.

Two communications were received from the County Board of Health. In reply to a request for a detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures in the scavenger fund for June, July and August, the Board of Health stated that this information was contained in the financial statement of the department published every month, and that if copies of the same were desired by the Council they would be supplied by the board. It was stated by members of Council that the health department had never sent to the Council a financial statement. Upon motion it was decided to make the third request of the Board of Health for the information desired. In reply to the communication from the Council with regard to alleged defective plumbing, the Board of Health stated that the laws were being as rigidly enforced as conditions would permit and called attention to a section in the ordinance that gives discretionary powers to the health department in the installation of plumbing. Councilman Loughlin remarked that the recent agitation had done good for conditions had greatly improved. He said that some new regulations had been adopted and that the laws are being enforced; this he could tell from the complaint made to him by some of the plumbers.

A communication was received from Dr. Nesbitt urging the Council to construct a concrete wall to protect the south end of the incinerator building and also a wall to protect the preheater. The matter was referred to City Engineer Pillet for investigation and report.

A resolution was adopted clearing the title of property purchased by Mr. Samuel Bear from the receivers of the old National bank that failed in 1896, so far as back taxes are concerned, it appearing that the taxes had been paid.

City Attorney Bryan said that he received a telegram from Mr. W. L. Seddon, chief engineer of the Seaboard Air Line, asking him to confer with John D. Bellamy, Esq., local counsel for the Seaboard, with regard to the proposed concrete bridge to be constructed over the railroad tracks at Hilton, but that they had not yet got together.

Councilman Loughlin reported that he had got some bids for some minor improvements at the Front street market, amounting all told to $178. The matter of letting the contracts was left to Councilman Loughlin.

Capt. Meares reported that at last the tax books are about ready. It was necessary, he said, to make some 1,200 or 1,500 alterations in the books on account of the change in valuations because of the new assessment on property abutting on improved streets.

Councilman Merritt read a letter from Mr. Jas. E. Holton, superintendent of the sanitary department, calling attention to the urgent need of making some arrangements for disposing of refuse other than the present method. In order to get to the disposal basin now used it is necessary for the teams to go through a slough, also through a marsh where was formerly dumped some of the refuse together with bottles, etc. It was suggested that the city purchase a scow and that the refuse be hauled down the river and dumped. Councilman Merritt and City Engineer Pillet were requested by Council to make an investigation of the feasibility of this plan.

Councilman Wood was authorized to employ some additional men in his department to aid in connecting new sewers.

Councilman Wood said that Geo. B. Elliott, Esq., of the Coast Line, desired members of Council to go in person and investigate the question of removing the spur track of the Tidewater Power Company at the union station from Front street to Red Cross street. The railroad wants the track moved. Mayor Moore said he had already made inspection of the track. No action was taken with regard to Council making an inspection.

The ordinance introduced at the last meeting fixing the city attorney's salary at $1,000 a year for attendance upon the Council meetings, drawing contracts, etc., and providing for reasonable compensation when he appears in court in litigation for the city and a commission on collection of back taxes, was passed on its second and final reading, no votes being cast against it.

The amendment to the ordinance with regard to building materials in the streets, offered at the last meeting, was passed on its final rading. Under the amendment the Mayor has the right to grant permission to use a portion of the streets in the fire district for building materials while a new building is in course of construction.

HOLDS ORDINANCE IS VALID

Chief of Police Williams last night received, through Councilman W. F. Jones, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, a copy of the written opinion of City Attorney E. K. Bryan, prepared at the request of Councilman Jones, on the question of the duty of the police department in view of the amended city ordinance permitting merchants to use two feet of sidewalk in front of their stores for exhibition of their merchandise.

Judge Bryan holds that until the courts declare the ordinance invalid, it is the duty of the police department to work under this ordinance. The same principle applies in all city ordinances, he said. Whether any merchants will avail themselves of the privilege will probably be known today. Under the instructions from Councilman Jones, acting under the opinion of City Attorney Bryan, it is most likely that the chief of police will permit the use of the sidewalks, as provided by the ordinance as it was amended yesterday.

The communication of Councilman Jones to Chief Williams and the opinion of City Attorney Bryan follow:

"Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 22, 1913.

"Mr. N. J. Williams, Chief of Police,

"Dear Sir:

"Under a ruling from the city attorney, which I am enclosing, it is the duty of the police department to sustain the ordinance passed at a meeting of Council this morning, which permits the use of two feet of the sidewalks by merchants for display of goods. In other words, this ordinance is all the law upon this particular question, until the courts shall have have held that it is invalid.

"Acting upon the instructions of a majority of the City Council, taken in connection with the opinion of the city attorney, above referred to, I desire to instruct you to see that your department observe fully each and every provision carried in the ordinance in question.

"Your truly,

"W. F. JONES,
"Councilman of Public Safety."

"October 22, 1913.

"Mr. W. F. Jones, Councilman Public Safety,

"Dear Sir:

"Your letter of October 22nd, asking me my opinion as to whether or not it is the duty of the police department to enforce the ordinance passed this morning, which permits the use by the merchants of two feet of the sidewalk in front of their premises, duly received, and in reply to same I desire to state that it is my opinion that it is the duty of the chief of police and all other police officers of the city to enforce each and every ordinance passed by the Council, and this, of course, includes the ordinance to which you refer, and, in my opinion, it is their duty to recognize the validity of every ordinance until the courts shall declare such ordinance invalid, after which time, of course, they should not be recognized.

"The police department of a municipality, as well as every other official whose duty it is to enforce the laws of the land, should recognize the validity of the statute law and ordinances until the courts declare them invalid, and should act upon the assumption that they are perfectly valid until so declared.

"You further ask me if this ordinance is a law in this municipality, covering the use of sidewalks, when the Supreme Court has not decided whether such use of the sidewalks would constitute a nuisance per se.

"The answer to the first question, of course, carried with it an affirmative answer to the second. Of course the courts have held that a municipality cannot permit certain permanent obstructions on the sidewalks by ordinance for the reason that the sidewalks belong to the public in general and they have the right to use the same, yet this ruling has many qualifications—for instance the court has held that a municipality can permit a sidewalk to be obstructed for a sufficient length of time to enable a property owner to improve his property, fronting on the streets, whether such obstruction should last for a month of six months, and the courts have held that it is a legitimate use of the sidewalks, and a municipality can permit the use of sidewalks by telephone, telegraph and street car companies in order to enable them to carry on their business, but the precise question which this ordinance permits has not, so far as I am aware, been before the Supreme Court of North Carolina, and I am inclined to the opinion that when it does come up, that it is more than likely that the Supreme Court will say that a municipality can have the power to grant the use by the merchants, which is permitted by the ordinance to which you refer, and upon the same theory that it permits a municipality to obstruct the sidewalks for the improvement of property, and upon the same theory that it permits a municipality to allow telephone poles to be erected along the same, but the question is not certain, by any means, and no one can tell beforehand what the ruling of the Supreme Court will be on this question, until a case is presented which involves the precise point.

"Very truly yours,

"E. K. BRYAN,
"City Attorney."

USE OF SIDEWALKS ALLOWED

City Council Decides to Grant Privilege of Two Feet—Mayor Forbids Enforcement of Ordinance.

The adoption by a vote of three to two of the ordinance permitting the use by merchants of two feet of sidewalk in front of their stores for the display of their goods, at the regular weekly meeting of the City Council yesterday morning, furnished the occasion for a passage at arms between Mayor Moore and Councilman Jones over the question of which of the two gentlemen will have the authority over the police department on this particular question.

Mayor Moore gave notice to Chief of Police Williams, who was present at the meeting, that he would expect him to enforce the State law bearing on the subject and keep the streets clear of any obstruction in the way of goods, wares, merchandise, etc., on display, while Councilman Jones said that he would instruct him to allow the city ordinance to govern. Councilman Jones stated further that he was at the head of the police department and would stand on his rights to have the say-so in the enforcement of the laws. Mayor Moore reiterated his instructions to the chief of police. Owing to the conflicting orders which he has received, the chief of police is most likely in a dilemma as to how to proceed. Late yesterday Councilman Jones gave to Chief Williams a written instructions as set forth in anothr column of today's paper.

Councilman Wood suggested to Mayor Moore in the heat of the discussion on the question of enforcing the ordinance that he might get Magistrate Harriss to take action for him. The Mayor replied that he was at the head of the city government and would call upon the police to obey his instructions in the enforcement of the law.

Voting for the ordinance, which is really an amendment to the existing ordinance, were Councilmen Merritt, Wood and Jones, while Councilman Loughlin and Chadwick voted against the measure. A petition signed, it was stated, by 75 or 100 merchants, both of downtown and outlying districts, asking the privilege of using two feet of the sidewalk, was presented by Councilman Merritt.

Councilman Jones moved the adoption of the ordinance he offered at the last meeting expressly granting to the merchants the use of two feet of sidewalk in front of their stores for the display of their goods. The motion was duly seconded and then the discussion began.

Councilman Loughlin raised the point that it would be better from the standpoint of being able to control the situation so that not more than the two feet allowed would be used, to simply repeal the present ordinance which prohibits the use of any part of the sidewalk. The repeal of the ordinance, he said, would leave the merchants free to use the sidewalks if they desired and at the same time would not put the city in the attitude of expressly giving them the authority to do so and it would also make it easier to prosecute the merchants under the common law for nuisance if they began to abuse the privilege thus negatively given to them.

The question was discussed at some length, the city attorney agreeing with the position of Councilman Loughlin, but the three members of the body in favor of the use of sidewalks had already determined what they wanted to do and declined to adopt the view of Councilman Loughlin.

The next thing in order was for the Councilmen individually to explain their votes on the question and this was done somewhat at length by several. Councilman Chadwick said that he at first favored the granting of the use of the sidewalk, but after writing to Charlotte, Charleston, Norfolk and other cities and receiving replies to the effect that no such privilege was allowed in those cities, he would vote against the marring of the beauty of the streets in Wilmington.

Councilman Loughlin admitted that the use of the sidewalks would be a benefit to the merchants who were asking the privilege, but there would be hundreds of others who would be affected, inconvenienced, by it and it was these people that he was speaking for. They are entitled to clear, unobstructed streets, he said.

Councilman Wood said that he bought fruit in Charlotte about a year ago from a man who had his goods displayed on the sidewalk in that city.

Councilman Jones was satisfied that in advocating the passage of the ordinance he was doing what a majority of the people would have him to do. He referred to his fight some months ago against the health department, declaring that in that also he had the support of a majority of the people, the result being that some relief was granted through the passage of an amendment to the health bill at the extra session of the Legislature. Councilman Jones made the assertion that if he should stand up for the few instead of the majority of the people of Wilmington he would be more popular and get more commendation from the newspapers, but that is not his policy, preferring to have the satisfaction of knowing that he had performed his duty well and for the interests of the majority of the people than to have all the popularity and the newspaper plaudits.

Before putting the question to a vote, Mayor Moore asked City Attorney Bryan some questions as to the legality of the ordinance. The city attorney stated that the Council has the right to pass the ordinance, but whether the courts would hold it to be valid he could not say. In reply to a question of the right of the city to give the merchants two feet, Judge Bryan said that he thought it had, though he could not say how the courts would construe the question. However, he thought that if the Council passed the proposed ordinance that the courts would uphold it.

Mayor Moore asked Judge Bryan if he would approve the ordinance and he replied that he would. The city attorney's approval was written at the bottom of the ordinance, after which the question was put to a vote, carrying three to two as stated.

Following the passage of the law Mayor Moore notified the chief of police that he would be held responsible for any violations of the State law and instructed him not to let any person place anything upon the sidewalks.

Councilman Jones stated that he would exercise the authority over the police department. Mayor Moore reiterated his instructions to the chief of police.

City Attorney Bryan was asked by a member of the Council as to whether the State law or city ordinance took precedence. The city attorney stated that of course it was the duty of the chief of police to enforce all laws, State or municipal, but that any ordinance on the books could be respected by the police and if indictment is desired under the State law warrants against the persons charged with being offenders could be brought.

Councilman Wood said that he was perfectly willing for a test case on the point to be brought. The discussion ended here and Council moved on to the consideration of other business.

The following is the amendment to the ordinance as it passed the Council yesterday:

"Be it Ordained by the Council of the city of Wilmington, and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same, that Section Five Hundred and Thirty-Four, of the revised ordinances of the city of Wilmington be, and the same is hereby amended by striking out of said section the words: 'or otherwise' in the fifth line thereof and by further striking out all of line nine, after the word 'ordinance' in said line, and all of lines ten and eleven and the word 'commodity' in the 12th line of said section, and shall be further amended by adding after the word 'day' and before the word 'any' in line 17 of said section the following: 'Provided further that nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent any merchant from using two feet in width of the sidewalk in front of and immediately alongside of the property line of his premises for the placing, displaying and sale of merchandise, produce, goods, provisions, poultry, fruit and other commodity.'"

It was stated yesterday that an officer of North Carolina Sorosis had declared that members of the club will not patronize those merchants who use any portion of the sidewalks for the display of their goods.

The County Board of Health may adopt a health regulation which, in effect, would prohibit merchants who deal in foodstuffs, fruits, berries, from the use of the sidewalks, it was stated last night. As a health regulation the Board of Health has the right to require that all foodstuffs, fruits, etc., exposed for sale on the sidewalks be inclosed in glass cases or otherwise protected from dust, etc. The board will hold a meeting today or tomorrow and this question will come up for consideration.

Justice Harriss' Position.

Justice Harriss, who was mentioned in the discussion of Council yesterday, last night gav out the following statement with regard to his position:

"I regret that my name was used in connection with the sidewalk ordinance, but since it has been I want to say that I thought that it was a well established principle of law that the sidewalks belong to the public and not to individuals. As to the enforcement of the law I will gladly give the chief of police any assistance I can, if requested, and I will go it alone, if necessary.

"I know that violations of city ordinances are made misdemeanors under the State law, and can be enforced by magistrates unless the Recorder is given exclusive jurisdiction, and I have not the least doubt but that Solicitor Peschau will know where to begin proceedings if it should become necessary."

SUIT FOR INSURANCE.

Holly Brings Action Against London Assurance Corporation.

Following the suit started a few days ago against the Greensboro Life Insurance Company and the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company, of Greensboro, for the recovery of the amount of insurance carried on the life of his ward, Edward Cromwell, who lost his life in the Rock Springs Hotel fire three years ago, J. C. Holly yesterday instituted suit against The London Assurance Corporation for the recovery of $1,250, which is the amount of insurance carried with the company on household and kitchen furniture in the burned hotel. It was stated a few days ago that such action was contemplated as the company had not complied with Holly's request for a settlement. C. D. Weeks and Wm. J. Bellamy, Esqs., appear for the plaintiff.

Hearing at Chambers.

After hearing the complaint and answer in the case of Iredell Meares, Esq., against T. A. Darby, J. F. Bussells and the Carolina Coast Products Company, Judge Rountree, at chambers, yesterday afternoon, indicated that he would dissolve the injunction in the case as requested by the defendants provided the defendant Darby would issue duplicate notes for $3,000 which the plaintiff claims he lost. This the defendant indicated his willingness to do. Argument will be heard today after which the court will announce decision.

BUILDING PERMITS.

Number of Residences to be Erected in City During Early Winter.

While there has been a cessation in building activities in the city during the Summer and early Fall within recent weeks, there has been a renewal of activities in the construction of residences, and during the past few days Fire Chief Schnibben has issued a number of building permits for the erection of homes. While most of these are for small residences there are several for large handsome, commodious homes.

Permits have been issued to Mr. B. F. Keith for the erection of two small residences on Ashe street, between Fourth and Fifth, the estimated cost being $1,500.

Mr. Thos. H. Wright has been given permission to erect a modern residence at Winoca Terrace, the estimated cost being $5,000.

Mr. H. L. Vollers has secured a permit for the erection of a two-story residence on the southeast corner of Tenth and Chesnut streets, the estimated cost being $2,500. A permit has been granted to W. Whitlock for the erection of a residence at the corner of 15th and Dock streets, the estimated cost being $1,300.

A permit has been issued to Mr. J. B. Fales for the erection of a store and residence combined on Seventh street, between Castle and Queen, the estimated cost being $2,400.

Mr. Hans Kure is building a fine modern residence at the Fort Fisher Seaside resort, which will be occupied by his son, Mr. William L. Kure, who expects to go into the stock raising business on an extensive scale.

First Lyceum Number.

The first number of the Lyceum Course of St. Andrew's Brotherhood will be given tomorrow night in the memorial annex of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church by the Chicago Glee Club, a quartette of singers widely known throughout the country for their talented singing. A feature of the club are the impersonations of Mr. C. H. Dixon. This number is the first one of seven which will be given under the auspices of the Brotherhood.

—Mr. B. F. Stiffler, of Southport, was in the city yesterday en route to his home from Uniontown, Pa., where he went to accompany the remains of Mr. William F. Robinson, who died at Southport last week.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

The Civic Department of Sorosis held its first meeting for the Fall yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the chairman, Mrs. J. G. Barentine, No. 115 Grace street. It was an organization meeting principally, and the work of the Industrial and Fine Arts Exhibit was also discussed. It was decided to take an active part in aiding in the improvement of the premises around the school buildings both in the city and in the county. The ladies placed themselves on record as being absolutely opposed to the merchants having the use of the sidewalks for the display of their wares. They expect to fight this proposition to the last extremity.

MARRIAGE IN PORTSMOUTH OF INTEREST LOCALLY.

Of interest to many friends of the groom in Wilmington, where he has made his home for the past few weeks, being connected with the new passenger and freight division office of the Seaboard Air Line, will read with interest the following account of the marriage in Portsmouth, Va., Thursday, of Mr. H. E. Pleasants and Miss Margaret A. Pearson, taken from the Portsmouth's department of Norfolk Virginian-Pilot:

"Miss Margaret Ann Pearson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Pearson, was married at 9 o'clock last night to Herman Elridge Pleasants, of Wilmington, N. C. The ceremony was performed in the parlor of the Pearson home, 1020 Green street, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives and out-of-town guests. Rev. Charles E. Donahoe, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic church, officiated.

"The residence was artistically decorated for the occasion. An aisle of ribbon was formed by Mrs. Harry Pollard and Miss Teresa Pearson, of Portsmouth, and Mrs. D. Hewes Gallagher, of Philadelphia, and Miss Lucile Clark, of Gainesville, Fla. Mrs. Pollard and Miss Pearson were gowned in white chiffon, draped in pink ribbon. Mrs. Gallagher and Miss Clark wore pink brocade satin over dresses of chiffon.

"As the bride and bridegroom entered the parlor Miss Susie Morgan played the Wedding March.

"The bride was attired in a mague blue esponge traveling suit with vest of gold brocaded velvet, with cuffs and collar and black fur. She wore a becoming hat of a pretty French model, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

"Miss Agnes G. Mackey, of Newport News, was the bride's maid. She wore pink charmeuse, draped in chiffon and caught with pearls. Her hat was of black velvet trimmed with black aigrettes, held in place with a gold butterfly. She carried a large bouquet of new Maryland roses.

"Mrs. Pearson, mother of the bride, was gowned in black imported voile pasmentry of black jet.

"The bridegroom's best man was Worth Calvert.

"The ushers were William T. Pearson, Charles O. Cherry and Paul Brooks, of Newport News.

"The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. D. Hewes Gallagher, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Lucile R. Clark, of Gainesville, Fla.; Miss Katherine Goldsmith, of Baltimore, Md.; Miss Agnes G. Mackey, Mr. Paul Brooks and Miss Mary E. Mackey, of Newport News, Va."

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

One of the most beautiful weddings of the Fall was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at Fifth Street Methodist church when Mr. Oscar Earl DuRant and Miss Mary Pennington Williams, daughter of Mrs. S. K. Williams, were united in marriage, the officiating minister being Rev. G. T. Adams.

The wedding was a white and yellow affair, this color scheme being carried out both in the gowns of the wedding party and in the church decorations. The church was prettily decorated with potted plants, ferns and Southern smilax. A novel and attractive feature was an improvised arch in front of the chancel beneath which was a double gateway and under which was suspended a large bell, illuminated with incandescent lights, the whole producing a most pretty effect.

The groomsmen, Messrs. Ralph Sholar, Leon DuRant, Albert Elmer and Marvin Cowell entered in twos followed by the bridesmaids, Misses Louise Sholar, Emma Belle LeGwin, Kate Russell DuRant and Hattie Gardner, who were attired in gowns of golden colored crepe de chine and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Lillian Williams, sister of the bride, gowned in white crepe de chine over satin and carrying a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Little Miss Elene McGirt, the ring bearer, came next, carrying the wedding ring on a cushion of lace. She was followed by the flower girls, little Misses Elizabeth Dock and Adrienne Hanby, who carried lovely baskets of flowers. The bride entered on the arm of her uncle, Capt. E. D. Williams, who gave her away. The bride was gowned in white crepe meteor with pearl trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. She was met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Mr. E. Fleet Williams, who approached from the rear.

As the bridal party entered Miss Camille Fleet played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. During the impressive ceremony she played softly "Hearts and Flowers." For the recessional Lohengrin's march was used.

The high esteem in which the young bridal couple are held by their many friends was shown by the large assortment of beautiful and useful presents which they received. The groom is with the Wilmington Produce Company, and is a popular young business man of the city. The bride is a young woman of most charming personality and has a large circle of friends.

They left on the 6:45 train for western North Carolina, where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return to the city they will be at home at No. 10 South Ninth street.

NEW STEAMER LAUNCHED.

The John W. Fredericks, Jr., Was Christened Yesterday.

With simple but impressive ceremonies as 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the steamer John W. Fredericks, Jr., built in this city by its owners, Capt. John W. Fredericks and Capt. J. D. Price, was launched from the ways near the Bellwill Cotton Mills, in the southern part of the city. The vessel was christened by Mrs. Fredericks, who broke a bottle of wine over the bow of the boat, as it slid off the ways into the Cape Fear.

The steamer will be ready for service on the river about November 5th. It will be engaged in regular lightering work. The vessel is 125 feet long, 27 feet beam, 8 feet hold, and will draw about six feet of water with a full cargo. The boat will be equipped with a hoisting engine and flats for doing heavy lightering.

Among those present to witness the launching of the boat were the owners and builders, Messrs. Fredericks and Price; Mrs. Fredericks and son, John W. Fredericks, Jr., for whom the boat is named; Mrs. J. D. Price and her mother and little grand-daughter; Maj. H. W. Stickle, United States engineer; Capt. Hargrove, and little son, Master Geo. W. Fredericks, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Sedberry, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Will Duncan.

The boat was launched under the direction of Mr. Richard McCabe.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETS.

Committee Appointed to Secure Suitable Quarters for Club.

The executive committee of the Commercial Club held a meeting yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock in the director's room of the Atlantic Banking & Trust Company for the purpose of taking some steps towards securing suitable quarters for the new club. A committee consisting of Messrs. C. E. Greenamyer, L. W. Moore and Thos. H. Wright was appointed to take this matter in charge. It was also decided to make the membership of the club individual and not to have firms and corporations as members. Nearly 50 new members were reported as having been secured, making the total membership to date about 150. An active campaign is being carried on for new members which is meeting with much success.

CHECK UP LOCAL DEATH RATE

Representative of State Board of Health Spent Two Days in City This Week—Complaint of Physicians.

It was learned yesterday that Mr. Harry Herring, a representative of the State Board of Health at Raleigh, spent Monday and Tuesday in Wilmington visiting the undertakers, hospitals, cemetery offices and calling on a number of physicians for the purpose of checking up the death rate in Wilmington as reported to the State Board of Health by the local health department. Mr. Herring has completed his work here and left Tuesday afternoon.

Inquiry was made at the health department yesterday about the investigation that was made by Mr. Herring, after it was found that he could not be found in person as he had left the city. Dr. Nesbitt, the superintendent, stated that he had not seen Mr. Herring as he did not call at the office of the health department, but admitted that it had been reported to him from the hospitals and by undertakers that a representative of the State Board of Health was in this city making an investigation. Dr. Nesbitt said that no information was sought from his office, though he would have been glad to have assisted the investigator in any way possible to obtain any information desired.

Dr. Nesbitt stated further that while in Raleigh last week he told Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health, of the big decrease in the death rate in Wilmington for the first eight and nine months of this year as compared with the corresponding period of 1912 and 1911. Dr. Rankin, he said, expressed some doubt of the accuracy of the figures and declared that he would send a man to Wilmington to obtain first-hand information for his own use from physicians, hospitals, undertakers and cemetery offices to see if the information gleaned from these sources would tally with the records of death certificates in the office of the health department here. Dr. Nesbitt said that he expected the investigator, when he arrived, to call at his office and get the record there so as to be able to check up in the proper manner, for in no other way could it be determined whether or not his office had withheld death certificates from the State Board in order to show a big decrease in the death rate. The original death certificates, consecutively numbered, are sent to Raleigh at the end of each month and from there the originals or copies go to Washington. Dr. Nesbitt pointed out that if there was any desire to falsify the records here nothing would show as to this on the reports to Raleigh, hence the importance of starting any investigation in the local office.

Dr. Nesbitt said that upon his return from Raleigh he wrote Dr. Rankin a letter confirming his conversation with him as to the decrease in the death rate here. He gave him the following figures: The number of deaths for the first eight months of 1911, January 1st to August 31st, was 551; corresponding period in 1912, 426; in 1913, 392. For nine months, January 1st to September 30th, the following: 1911, 595 deaths; 1912, 478 deaths; 1913, 438. Dr. Nesbitt called attention to the fact that the population during the time which elapsed from the 1910 census to March 1st of this year, increased 4,195, making the population for this year 29,943. This information was sent him in a communication so that it could become a permanent record in the office of the State Board of Health.

Dr. Nesbitt said that the idea of making an investigation of the office had its beginning some months ago when two physicians of the city reported to the State Board of Health that the death rates announced by his department were not accurate. Dr. Rankin, he said, evidenced a desire to investigate the office in person to determine whether or not these charges were true, but said he would not do so unless invited by the County Board of Health and then he would like to do it in conjunction with a representative of the United States Marine Hospital Service at Washington. At the request of Dr. Nesbitt the County Board of Health invited Dr. Rankin to make the investigation in accordance with his proposition, but he finally declined on the ground that it would be a bad policy for the State Board to mix up with local matters.

Dr. Nesbitt said that as soon as he learned that a representative of the State Board of Health was here making an investigation without even letting him know that he was in the city, he wrote to Dr. Rankin and that he expected a reply from him this morning.

WATERWAYS ASSOCIATION.

Mr. R. A. Parsley Elected to Presidency—For Active Work.

At a well attended meeting yesterday of the executive board of the North Carolina Waterways Association, Mr. M. W. Divine, submitted his resignation as president, this being reluctantly accepted, and Mr. R. A. Parsley was elected president in his stead. The election of Mr. Parsley was by unanimous vote and he is well equipped to direct the affairs of the association. He has a clear and very thorough understanding of traffic problems, has always been closely identified with the development of water transportation, and will make a splendid directing officer for the organization which has done much towards a successful culmination of efforts in Congress for internal improvement.

The association will again begin active and systematic work, giving special consideration for the present towards the extension of the intracoastal waterway, south of Beaufort, N. C.

A New Principle in Complexion Treatment

(From Society World.)

Most creams are injurious when used habitually. They clog the pores and eventually form a permanent, soggy, stifling film which interferes with eliminative action and makes the skin sickly and pasty. There is an application—mercolized wax—which acts upon an entirely different principle. While perfectly harmless, it has the peculiar property of removing by absorption the dead and half dead particles of scarf skin, as well as unhealthy matter in the pores. Thus it takes away from instead of adding to the complexion, differing in this respect from cosmetics. The result is a perfectly natural and healthy young complexion. Mercolized wax, procurable at any drug store (one ounce is sufficient), is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

The correct principle in the treatment of wrinkles is to tighten the skin, which naturally irons out the lines. A face bath remarkably effective in this direction, may be made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pt. witch hazel.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED.

Senator Robert M. LaFollette Will be Royally Welcomed Monday.

Considerable general interest attaches to the visit which will be made next Monday to Wilmington by Hon. Robert M. LaFollette, United States Senator from Wisconsin. He is recognized as one of the foremost progressives in the Senate today. In all America his friends claim there is not a stronger man upon the platform than Mr. LaFollette. He has spoken upon "Representative Government" hundreds of times. Again and again he has addressed the same audiences upon the same subject.

The principles are as old as the struggle for liberty. But the address is said to be always fresh with the vital facts of the present hour and full of human interest, which centers about the men who are in the thick of the fight for government by the people. Eloquence has for its highest object the triumph of principle, of justice, of right. Earnestness born of a deep conviction in the everlasting righteousness of the cause presented is the basis of Mr. LaFollette's commanding position upon the platform.

That he will address an overflowing crowd at the Boys' Brigade Armory Monday night is a foregone conclusion.

The committee on arrangements met at the Armory Monday night to confer with Col. Walker Taylor, with B. F. King, Jr., acting as chairman. It was decided to receive the distinguished Senator in a manner becoming his station in life, and to this end several committees from the commercial bodies have been appointed, that from the Chamber of Commerce being composed of Messrs. M. J. Corbett, president of this organization; L. E. Hall, vice-president; Hugh MacRae, H. C. McQueen, and J. Allan Taylor. The committee from the Commercial Club is composed of Messrs. Thos. E. Cooper, C. E. Clark, Louis Einstein, L. W. Moore and W. A. McGirt.

Mayor Parker Quince Moore will represent the city.

The committee from the Boys' Brigade will be composed of Messrs. Walker Taylor, B. F. King, Jr., C. C. Loughlin and J. A. Price.

These gentlemen will meet Senator LaFollette at the station, and will act as an escort to the hotel, after extending to him such a welcome as these gentlemen are accustomed to extend to visiting men of prominence. During the afternoon Mr. LaFollette will be escorted about the city and suburbs by a committee headed by Col. Walker Taylor.

The lecture is to be delivered at 8:30 that night. Col. Taylor will preside over this gathering. As a member of the local bar, a member of the City Council, and as a member of the Boys' Brigade, C. C. Loughlin, Esq., will make the introductory address. Many men of prominence in the city will be invited to occupy seats upon the platform upon this occasion.

Superior Court Yesterday.

In the case of the Kentucky Horse & Mule Company against John J. Furlong, taken up in Superior Court Tuesday, a verdict was returned by the jury yesterday in favor of the plaintiff. The amount was left blank and is to be fixed by the court. The plaintiff was suing for $215 alleged to be due for a mule, which the defendant contended did not come up to the guarantee of the company. The case of Anderson Stroud against H. F. Schulken was referred to E. S. Martin, Esq., as referee. In the matter of the will of J. C. Hankins was continued. A jury was selected before court adjourned for the day in the case of Jefferson Moore against the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, the taking of testimony in which begins this morning.

RESINOL WILL STOP THAT ITCH

Brings Instant Relief and Quickly Clears Away Skin Eruptions.

No matter how long you have been tortured and disfigured by itching, burning, raw or scaly skin humors, just put a little of that soothing, antiseptic Resinol Ointment on the sores and the suffering stops right there! Healing begins that very minute, and your skin gets well so quickly you feel ashamed of the money you threw away on useless, tedious treatments

Wherever drugs are sold, you can be just as sure of finding Resinol Ointment as court-plaster or a toothbrush. This is because doctors have prescribed it so regularly for the last eighteen years that every druggist knows he must keep it constantly in stock. It comes in opal jars, for fifty cents and one dollar, or you can try it at our expense. Resinol Ointment is most effective for healing sores, boils, wounds and piles. Write today to Dept. 5-M, Resinol, Baltimore, Md., for a sample of Resinol Ointment and a miniature cake of Resinol Soap.

AILING WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Hilbert Tells of Her Distressing Symptoms During Change of Life and How She Found Relief.

Fleetwood, Pa.—"During the Change of Life I was hardly able to be around at all. I always had a headache and I was so dizzy and nervous that I had no rest at night. The flashes of heat were so bad sometimes that I did not know what to do.

"One day a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me a strong well woman. I am very thankful that I followed my friend's advice and I shall recommend it as long as I live. Before I took the Compound I was always sickly and now I have not had medicine from a doctor for years. You may publish my letter."—Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system. It has carried many women safely through this crisis.

COTTON GAINS 24 POINTS

New High Record for Season in Near Months—Reactions Late in the Day but Closing Was Steady.

New York, Oct. 22. — The cotton market not only recovered yesterday's big loss, but made new high records for the season on near months during the day's trading. October contracts sold at 14.22, and December at 14.02. Realizing caused reactions of several points late in the day, but the close was steady and last prices showed net gains of from 19@24 points.

An active and excited buying movement was started by relatively firm Liverpool cables and a flood of crop damage reports from the South, following the cold snap reported yesterday. First prices were from 12@16 points net higher, and after some little irregularity as a result of renewed realizing the market again firmed up on prospects that another cold wave would follow rains in the South, fresh buying for long account, covering of shorts and continued bull support. After showing a net gain of some 25 to 30 points, business slackened, but prices reacted only a few points, and the market reached the highest point still later in the day on another rush of buying orders from local and Southern sources. Active months sold 33 to 35 points net higher, and December contracts sold above 14 cents for the first time this season, making an advance of about $16 a bale from the low level of last Summer. Reports of heavy rains in the Southwest helped this advance, and some buying may have also been inspired by a crop estimate of 13,000,000 bales, excluding linters, by a Chicago firm.

The market encountered a great deal of long cotton around 14 cents for December and last prices showed reactions of some 12 or 13 points from the best. The small local stock, less than 5,000 bales of certificated cotton being now available here, undoubtedly added to the firmness of the near months.

Spot, steady. Uplands, 14.50; gulf, 14.75. No sales.

MAY TRANSFER TROOPS.

Soldier Boys on Texas Border May be Relieved.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Arrangements have been made to have the Second and Fifth regiments of cavalry which for several years have been on duty on the Mexican border, replaced by the Tenth and 15th regiments. No time has been set for the transfer.

Major General Wood, chief of staff, decided to recommend this change because the Second and the Fifth regiments have had extended foreign and tropical service in Cuba, the Philippines Porto Rico and Hawaii. The Fifth with station at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, will be replaced by the Tenth from Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, while the 15th from Fort Myer, Va.; Fort Sheridan, Ill., and Fort Leavenworth, Kas., will relieve the Second at Fort Bliss, Texas.

General Wood desires to give officers, men and horses now on the frontier an opportunity to get into better physical condition and field training. Both of the regiments will be assembled next Summer at Winchester, Va., in a cavalry camp of instruction, similar to that which the Tenth and 15th received last Summer.

To the Sheriff of New Hanover County; Greeting:

Whereas, Lately in the Justice's Court in and for the County of New Hanover, at a session of said court, held on the 21st day of October, 1913, in the office of the undersigned, in the City of Wilmington, N. C., Judgment Nisi for $200.00 was rendered in favor of the State against G. R. Morrell and his security, to wit, the sum of $200.00 deposited as bail, according to the provisions of an act of the General Assembly, condemning bail for the personal appearance of said G. R. Morrell, at Justice's Court, in the matter of the State against G. R. Morrell, then pending in said court, I therefore command you that you make known to said G. R. Morrell, to be and to appear before the undersigned on the 31st day of Oct., 1913, at 9 o'clock A. M., and show cause, if any he has, why the $200.00 deposited by him for his appearance at said court on the 21st day of Oct., 1913, should not be condemned and paid over to the School Fund of said County, and why final judgment should not be entered against him, under said undertaking; And the undersigned having been apprised of the fact that the said G. R. Morrell having fled the State of North Carolina to avoi dstanding trial, this notice is ordered to be published in The Morning Star, a daily newspaper published in New Hanover County, notifying the said defendant G. R. Morrell to appear before me at 9:00 o'clock A. M., October 31st, 1913, and answer said notice.

This Oct. 21st, 1913.

STOCK MARKET DULL AND FLAT

New York, Oct. 22.—After the favorite stocks had relapsed a point or so from the higher level attained on yesterday's buoyant rise, interest in speculation died out today, and the market became dull and flat.

The tone improved and part of the early loss was recovered, but in the final hour quotations moved off again.

Bulls leaders were not inclined to take an aggressive position, in view of the uncertainties of the general situation. No considerable volume of outside buying was attracted by the rise. Steady pressure against street was effective in holding the market in check. The steel trade reviews spoke of further reductions in working forces, and it was announced that one of the street corporations' subsidiaries had dismissed a large number of employees. Additional price reductions were reported.

The Mexican situation was again brought to the fore by the day's news, which exerted a restraining influence. London selling was another factor in depressing the market.

Declaration of 21 per cent. back dividends on Vulcan Detinning, preferred, caused a jump of 15½ points in the stock. American Tobacco was again strong, its gain in the last two days amounting to 15 points.

Bond prices eased off a trifle. Distillers' 5s extended their recent rise by moving up 3½. Total sales, par value, $1,900,000.

United States 2s, registered, advanced ¼ on call. Total stock sales, 278,400 shares including American Copper, 35,700; American Tobacco, 1,000; A. C. MENACE TO INDUSTRY.

Those Financially in Power Who Are Crooks Are Dangerous.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—A resolution offered by Sydney Norman, of Washington, was adopted at this afternoon's session of the American Mining Congress here which refers to the "dishonest operations of the financially powerful" as a great menace to the mining industry.

Through this resolution the Congress went on record as favoring the institution of uniform State laws that will provide protection to minority stockholders by making directors more definitely responsible for their welfare and constituting infraction of such laws a felony, punishable by imprisonment. The resolution suggests that the Department of Justice investigate "scandals recently disclosed regarding securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange," to the end that the offenders be brought to justice. Copies of the resolutions will be forwarded to President Wilson, the attorney general and the New York Stock Exchange.

An attack on Federal control over coal lands and water rights was made by United States Senator Shafroth, of Colorado, in an address before the convention. Senator Shafroth's address was directed articularly against government ownership of 9,425,000 acres of coal lands in Colorado, valued, he said, at from $500,000,000 to one billion. The lands thus held, he said, are exempt from taxation for county, State or school purposes. The Senator assailed the policy of Gifford Pinchot, former chief forester, who, he said, "would lease these coal lands, which would bring a return to the Federal government, but would not provide the State any revenue."

He urged the sale of these lands to Indians or to corporations.

The Senator also attacked the former chief forester for having "urged the government, through former Secretary of interior Garfield, to revoke 40 permits for water plants in Colorado, one of which was furnishing power for trolley cars in Denver. The government, he said, took away the water rights from men in Colorado who had spent from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 in developing them.

The time has come for a revision of the land laws to bring them up to date, according to Dr. James Douglas, of New York, whose paper was read at today's session.

Dr. George Otis Smith, director of the United States Geological Survey, said the first essential of mining land legislation should be that no provision in the law should place any unnecessary charge, burden or operating cost upon the operator.

A committee to draft a tentative "blue sky" bill for presentation to the Legislatures of all the States and to Congress, is provided for in a resolution adopted today by the Congress.

The resolution stated that an investigation of the present "blue sky" laws show many of them to have the earmarks of politics.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Secretary Daniels at President Wilson's request today accepted an invitation to speak in Kansas City November 19th at a celebration of the 118th anniversary of the conclusion of the Jay treaty.

UTMOST SECRECY BEING OBSERVED

in favor of their leader if demonstrations occurred.

Utmost Secrecy.

Washington, Oct. 22.—State Department officials today declined to discuss in any way the inquiries made by Ambassador Page in London in respect to Great Britain's attitude in Mexico.

It was evident that in whatever is passing between Great Britain and the United States on the latest phase of the Mexican situation the utmost secrecy is to be observed. At the White House there was positively no information available and Secretary Bryan who spent the entire day at home working on foreign matters, displayed extreme reticence. Diplomats were of the opinion that there would be further conversations, but they were not likely to occur until after October 26th the date set for the Mexican elections. A new expression of policy is expected from the United States immediately after that date.

No developments of importance in the internal situation in Mexico was reported except the arrival at Vera Cruz of Gen. Felix Diaz, which John Lind promptly cabled to the State Department without comment.

The dispatch of warships to Mexican waters by European countries brought forth no comment from officials here. It is known that this action is not regarded by the United States as conflicting with the desire of this government for a free hand in dealing with the Mexican problem.

Diaz Allowed to Land.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, Oct. 22.—Gen. Felix Diaz landed here from the steamship Corcovado without hindrance at 11 o'clock this morning. He was cheered as he came ashore by several hundred people of the working class. He went immediately to the residence of his mother-in-law.

He said in reply to inquiries that he would not withdraw from the Presidential candidacy even though he were competing against the Huerta ticket.

An agent of the Mexican government called on Gen. Diaz while he still was on board the Corcovado and attempted to induce him to continue his voyage to Tampico, but Gen. Diaz refused to do so.

France Sends Ships.

Paris, Oct. 22.—The French government today ordered the armored cruiser Condee to proceed to the Mexican coast to protect French interests.

Japan Hands Off.

Tokio, Japan, Oct. 22.—The Japanese foreign office today declared that no Japanese warships would be sent to Mexico.

"ALMOST AN INSULT."

Senator Declared Seaman Servitude Bill Insult to Other Nations.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The so-called "Seaman's Servitude Bill" now before the Senate would repeal or annul many treaties with foreign governments "in a way that is almost an insult" to certain countries, was contended by Senator Burton, of Ohio, in the Senate today.

Germany, Great Britain, France and Belgium have made representations urging the United States not to act upon proposed shipping regulations or safety at sea requirements until after the international maritime conference at London, November 12th.

The London conference will take up general questions of safety appliances, the manning of life boats, prevention of fire and like subjects. Senator Burton said it had been called chiefly because of the activities of the United States and that this country should not take hasty action that would practically "flout the nations of the world." He declared he provision of the pending bill requiring foreign ships to pay their sailors one-half the wages due them when in American ports and opening the courts of the United States to foreigners was in direct contravention of treaty rights. The bill will come up for vote in the Senate at 4 o'clock tomorrow.

Senator LaFollette, who has charge of the measure on the floor, insisted today that the requirements were not such as to give offense to foreign governments.

A vain effort by Senator LaFollette to secure a preliminary vote on the bill before adjournment today brought a further protest from Senator Bacon, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee.

"It is a serious thing to abrogate a treaty with another nation without first consulting that nation," Senator Bacon said. "We have enough present and anticipated friction now with foreign governments to convince us that in these matters we should not act without at least having knowledge of what we are doing."

The Senator declared the bill apparently would directly abrogate certain treaty agreements with Germany; and challenged any member of the Senate to state what its effect would be as to other nations.

CATHOLICS FOR MISSIONS.

Will Try to Raise One Million Yearly for This Work.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 22.—A central committee to control the missionary work of the Catholic Church in the United States is favored by a committee investigating the project.

Bishop Regis Canevin of Pittsburg, told delegates to the Catholic Missionary Congress today that the missionary situation in this country had been studied by a committee of three appointed by the board of governors of the Church Extension Society. While the report had not been submitted, Bishop Canevin, as one of the members, explained some of the main points.

The committee found, according to the Bishop, that many of the missionary organizations overlapped each other. "We concluded," he said, "that it would be better to have a single missionary society operating in the United States."

Referring to the work of one of the missionary organizations in collecting over $200,000 every year in the dioceses of New York and Boston, Bishop Canevin said:

"Imagine how much money could be gotten, if we could add to this Philadelphia, Chicago, Baltimore, Brooklyn, Newark, Hartford, Detroit, Cleveland, etc. Without doubt, within five years the Church in America would be giving over $1,000,000 to missions."

Mass meetings held throughout Greater Boston tonight virtually brought the Congress to a close.

Clergymen from all over the country took part.

from the gas and were in no condition to tell what had happened at the time of the explosion.

Immediately on being brought to the surface, the men were given into the care of physicians, many of whom have arrived here from nearby towns.

It is believed the explosion occurred in stope deep within the mine. From conditions rescuers have found since digging within the debris, it is believed the air supply is plentiful as the air has improved as the rescuers progress farther toward the center of the mine.

Five Rescued.

Mayor Kinney, of this city, has organized a relief camp at the mine where rescuers are being cared for and where miners as they are taken out will be given medical assistance if needed. The Mayor declared tonight that it was impossible to make any conjecture concerning the possible loss of life and that none of the mine officials or rescuers on the ground would care to make any statement. According to Mayor Kinney no cause for the explosion has been learned and if is believed it will not be known until the miners now entombed half a mile from the entrance, have been rescued and tell their story. So far none of the men rescued have been able to approach the air shaft or any of the workings within the mine which would have proved a means of exit through another shaft and the fact that none of the other entombed miners has been able to make his way out of the mine, leads to the belief that all have been cut off from every means of exit.

The air supply within the mine is the chief concern of the rescuers who believe they will be able to reach the interior of the mine by tomorrow night at the latest.

In the relief camps situated several yards from the entrance to mine No. 2 are gathered the women and children of the entombed miners' families. They are cheered by the knowledge that Superintendent McDermott is among the main body of imprisoned miners because they have confidence, as have mine officials, in the superintendent's resources in such plight.

Many Hundred to Rescue.

Relief parties from nearby towns are constantly arriving and by tomorrow morning the number of rescuers in Dawson will be well into the hundreds, all equipped with the latest apparatus for combating gases and other dangers of mine explosions. Tonight as one group of workers is driven back for air, another takes its place. That system is to be continued until the last of the men known to have been caught in the explosion shall have been found.

Cause of Explosion Unknown.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 22.—Between 230 and 280 miners were entombed by an explosion in mine No. 2 of the Stag Canon Fuel Company, at Dawson, N. M., at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The entombed men included General Superintendent Frank McDermott, of the mine, and several other American miners. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

Meagre advices received up to a late hour tonight were that only five miners had been taken alive from the upper level. These reports stated that most of the day shift were employed below the second level, where the shaft was blocked with debris resulting from the explosion.

Accounts from Dawson and Raton were uncertain as to the possibility of rescuing any of the men alive, while a statement from El Paso, Texas, expressed hope that most of the entombed men would be found alive. This belief was based on the fact that the workings of No. 2 mine are connected by a tunnel with mine No. 5, while an air shaft is said to furnish another means of exit.

Immediate relief work was undertaken by men from the night shift and neighboring mines. Appeals for aid started scores of experienced miners from Trinidad and the surrounding coal camps shortly after 6 o'clock and they were expected to reach Dawson before midnight.

J. C. Roberts, superintendent of Federal miners on the stations in the Rocky Mountain division, began immediate preparations to leave for Dawson tonight with the rescue car. He also telegraphed Hillsburg, Kansas and Rock Springs, Wyo., for the rescue cars stationed at those points.

DR. PHILIP UHLER DEAD.

For Many Years Provost of Peabody Institute, of Baltimore.

Baltimore, Oct. 21.—Dr. Philip Uhler, for many years provost of the Peabody Institute, of this city, and widely known in scientific circles throughout the country, died at his home here today. He was 78 years old, and had been an invalid for the last two years.

Dr. Uhler was the author of many contributions to scientific journals in the United States and England. His collection of locusts and other members of the cicada family, which was presented to the National government several years ago, is considered the best ever made.

DR. SHAW DEFIANT.

Advocates Electing Only Those In Favor of Suffrage.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Defeat for re-election of all who oppose the adoption of a constitutional amendment to assure nation-wide woman suffrage, including Senators and Representatives in Congress and members of the State Legislatures, is the avowed object of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman's Suffrage Association, who arrived here today.

Dr. Shaw made this announcement after a conference on the subject today with Washington suffragists. She will inaugurate her campaign at Lynchburg, Va., next Friday night, when she will address the Virginia Suffrage League, and proposes to continue it before other suffrage organizations in various cities.

Plans for the convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association to be held here in December were considered at the conference. Action on the constitutional amendment will be the principal feature of the convention.

In a statement today Dr. Shaw denounced the detention of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the British suffragette leader, at Ellis Island, characterizing it as "ridiculous in the extreme."

The only effect upon woman's suffrage in this country, Mrs. Pankhurst's coming would have, she said, would be to arouse sympathy for the cause.

Dr. Shaw tonight addressed the Just Government League at Chevy Chase, Maryland.

FACES TRIANGULAR FIGHT.

Impeached Governor Ready to Open His Campaign.

New York, Oct. 22.—William Sulzer faced today a three-cornered fight for election to the Assembly from the Sixth district, the Republican candidate Harry Kopp, declaring he had never promised to withdraw from the race and did not intend to do so. The district is normally Republican.

Sulzer's acceptance of the Progressive nomination was characterized as a breach of faith this afternoon by Kopp as a fight for vindication rather than a fight to represent the Sixth district.

William Sulzer tonight entered upon the campaign which he hopes will result in his return to public office as an assemblyman in the State Legislature. In a series of speeches in the Sixth assembly district, where he is the candidate on the Progressive ticket, he attacked Charles F. Murphy and the court of impeachment which removed him from the office of Governor. The meeting halls he visited could not hold all who wished to hear him and he made addresses in the streets.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The Senate tonight unanimously confirmed Governor Glynn's nomination of James M. Lynch, of Syracuse, president of the International Typographical Union, as State Labor Commissioner.

The Senate twice rejected Governor Sulzer's nomination of John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America for the position.

CAROLINA AND A. & M.

November Game Called Off by U. N. C.—The Negotiations.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—Following receipt of a letter tonight from the athletic authorities of the University of North Carolina cancelling the football game scheduled here for November 15th, Prof. W. C. Riddick, chairman of the A. & M. faculty athletic committee, has given out a statement in which is given the full text of the contract entered into by representatives of the two institutions. The University has insisted that A. & M. add to the contract already signed, a clause requiring members of its football team to be residents of the college five months before playing in this game.

Supporting the A. & M. position that the University signed this contract with a full understanding that A. & M. could not and would not include the five months' residence requirement of players, copies of a letter which were sent to Graduate Manager McLendon during correspondence of the negotiations are included in the statement. A & M. authorities regret exceedingly the action taken by the University as they are ready to carry out the contract in its entirety and believed that the University would do the same and it looks to people of the State to decide for themselves as to the correctness of the A. & M. position.

ASK SUPREME COURT'S DECISION

Telephone Company Wants to Know How Much it Owes W. U.

Washington, Oct. 22.—After 30 years of litigation in lower courts, the American Bell Telephone Company today asked the Supreme Court to decide the amount of royalties and rentals it owes the Western Union Telegraph Company under the contract in 1879 ending their rivalry in the telephone business.

More than $5,000,000 is involved in the case. By the contract of 1879 the Western Union was to retire from renting telephones and sell its subsidiary telephone patents to the Bell company. In return the latter was to pay the Western Union twenty per cent. of the rentals or royalties from licenses or leases for "speaking telephones."

WILSON SIGNS BILL.

Abolishing Commerce Court and Limiting Civil Service.

Washington, Oct. 22.—President Wilson today signed the Urgent Deficiency bill, carrying exemptions from the civil service of deputy United States marshals and deputy collectors of internal revenue. The President gave out the following memorandum:

"I am convinced, after a careful examination of the facts, that the offices of deputy collectors and deputy marshals were never intended to be included under the ordinary provisions of the civil service law. The control of the whole method and spirit of the administration of the proviso in this bill, which concerns the appointment of these officers, is no less entirely in my hands now than it was before the bill became law; my warm advocacy and support both of the principle and of the bona fide practice of civil service reform is known to the whole country, and there is no danger that the spoils principle will creep in with my approval or connivance."

DENY ALLEGATIONS.

Five Companies Named in Coal Trust Suit.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—Denials that they are parties to an alleged combination in restraint of the anthracite coal trade were filed in the United States District Court here today by five of the nine companies mentioned in the government's suit to dissolve the so-called hard coal trust.

The answers were by the Reading Company, the Philadelphia & Reading Railway Co., the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Co., the Wilmington & Northern Railway Co., and the Lehigh & New England Railroad Co. The companies ask dismissal of the suit.
